Shri Ramaswamy Narayanan
Chairman and Managing Director

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me great pleasure to present the Annual Report of the General Insurance Corporation of India (GIC Re) for the Financial Year 2024-25, a year of remarkable resilience and success. At the outset, I extend my heartfelt thanks for your continuous support and trust, which have enabled GIC Re to progress through formidable challenges. As we reflect on this year's journey, I am filled with profound gratitude for the collective efforts that have strengthened our position as India's leading reinsurer, aligning with the vision of a "Viksit Bharat" by 2047.

The past year tested us with climate-driven catastrophes, including Cyclone Remal, Cyclone Fengal, Wayanad landslides, and Assam landslides, alongside geopolitical uncertainties and economic volatility. These events underscored the critical role of reinsurance in safeguarding communities and businesses. Yet, for over five decades, GIC Re has weathered such storms, emerging stronger and more cohesive, poised to drive sustained growth and contribute to India's economic aspirations.

Financial Performance

I am delighted to share that GIC Re has delivered a robust financial performance in FY 2024-25, reflecting our resilience and strategic focus. Your company booked a gross premium income of ₹41,153.95 crore, marking a growth of 10.7% over the previous year's ₹37,181.76 crore. This growth underscores our ability to expand our footprint in both domestic and international markets, with the domestic market contributing around 75% of our premium income, consistent with our leadership in India's reinsurance sector.

Our underwriting losses have reduced from ₹4,006.56 crore for the year 2023-24 to ₹3,351.61 crore, reflecting our focus on the bottom-line, despite the challenges posed by catastrophic events and a competitive market environment. Our investment portfolio performed exceptionally well, generating an income of ₹12,702.60 crore, a significant increase from ₹11,620.40 crore in FY 2023-24, driven by strategic investments in top-tier securities. We capitalized on market corrections to acquire fundamentally strong scrips, booking profits with rising indices, achieving a yield on average investments of 10.67%.

Profits before tax for FY 2024-25 reached ₹8,765.64 crore, a 11.27% increase from ₹7,877.93 crore in the previous year, while profit after tax stood at ₹6,701.36 crore, up 3.14% from ₹6,497.30 crore. Our solvency ratio improved to an impressive 3.70 as of March 31, 2025, from 3.25 at the end of FY 2023-24, affirming our financial stability. This is against a mandated solvency of 1.5 by IRDAI. Total assets grew to ₹1,87,615.74 crore, and our net worth (without fair value change account) reached ₹43,106.52 crore, reflecting a solid foundation for future growth. We are also proud to have rewarded our shareholders with a dividend of ₹10.00 per share, underscoring our commitment to delivering value.

These results are a testament to our strategic focus on profitable growth, disciplined underwriting, and prudent investment management. I extend my gratitude to our management team and employees for their relentless efforts in achieving these milestones.

Macroeconomic and Industry Overview

The Indian economy continues to shine as a beacon of resilience, achieving an estimated GDP growth of 6.5% in FY 2024-25, despite global headwinds. Supported by robust policy measures, digital transformation, and increasing financial inclusion, India remains a bright spot in the global economy. The non-life insurance sector in India grew by approximately 6.2% in FY 2024-25, driven by rising demand in health, motor, and emerging segments like cyber insurance. The growth looks muted due to the changes brought in by IRDAI on accounting treatment of long-term policies.

Globally, the reinsurance industry is navigating a complex landscape. Climate change has intensified the frequency and severity of natural catastrophes, while geopolitical tensions, such as ongoing conflicts in Europe and the Middle East, continue to disrupt supply chains and financial markets. Despite these challenges, the global reinsurance market is experiencing favorable pricing conditions, rising investment yields, and increased demand for reinsurance protection.

In India, the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDAI) continues to steer the industry toward greater efficiency and inclusivity. The "Bima Trinity" initiative and the vision of "Insurance for All by 2047" are transforming the sector, encouraging innovation and accessibility. The upcoming adoption of IFRS and the Risk-Based Capital Mechanism will enhance transparency and risk assessment, positioning GIC Re to leverage these changes for sustained profitability.

Our focus remains on supporting the domestic market while selectively expanding our international presence. In 2024-25, we strengthened our leadership in treaty programs and facultative placements, particularly in the Afro-Asian region, and continued to invest in technology, such as SAP Risk Management and Global Catastrophe Modelling Software, to enhance our risk assessment capabilities.

Future Outlook

Looking ahead, the reinsurance market in 2025-26 presents a promising outlook, buoyed by continued pricing discipline and rising demand for innovative insurance solutions. The Indian non-life insurance sector is projected to grow at 13-15% annually over the next few years, driven by health, motor, and emerging areas like surety bonds and cyber insurance. GIC Re is well-positioned to capitalize on this growth, with a diversified portfolio and a commitment to underwriting profitability.

We are intensifying our focus on digital transformation by investing in reserving software and catastrophe modeling tools to strengthen our ability to manage risks effectively. Additionally, we are committed to sustainability, developing products to address climate-related risks and supporting India's ESG goals.

Internationally, our achievement of an A- (Excellent) Financial Strength Rating from AM Best, secured in October 2024, enhances our competitiveness in global markets, enabling strategic expansion with greater credibility. Our permanent offices in the UK, Malaysia, South Africa and Russia, along with our planned incorporation of GIC Re, India Service Company in London, will further strengthen our global footprint. We will continue to support IRDAI's vision of Insurance for All by 2047 while pursuing profitable growth and stakeholder value creation.

As I conclude, I am filled with optimism for GIC Re's future. Our journey in 2024-25 has been one of resilience, innovation, and unwavering commitment to excellence and profitability. I extend my deepest gratitude to our Board of Directors for their strategic guidance, our management team for their leadership, and our employees for their dedication. To our shareholders, partners, and customers, your trust remains our greatest asset, and we are committed to delivering on your expectations.

Together, let us continue to build a stronger, more inclusive GIC Re, contributing to India's vision of a "Viksit Bharat" by 2047. Thank you for your continued support, and I look forward to our shared journey toward greater heights of excellence.

ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Global Economy

The global economy demonstrated measured resilience in 2024, with growth estimated at 3.1%, according to the International Monetary Fund (IMF). While this pace remains below pre-pandemic averages, it reflects a steady recovery from recent inflationary shocks and policy tightening cycles. Key drivers of this performance included easing inflationary pressures, normalization in commodity prices, and broadly resilient labour markets. Among advanced economies, the United States maintained robust momentum, supported by strong consumer spending and improved price stability. Emerging markets and developing economies (EMDEs) also saw relatively stable growth, reinforced by firm domestic demand and favourable external conditions. However, the Eurozone continued to face headwinds from weak industrial output and elevated borrowing costs. Meanwhile, China's recovery remained constrained by structural issues in its real estate sector and softening global demand.

Looking ahead, global growth is projected to moderate to 2.8% in 2025, as outlined by the IMF and the World Bank. This reflects a complex interplay of factors, including the withdrawal of pandemic-era stimulus, tighter global financial conditions, and growing geopolitical and trade policy uncertainties. In the United States, growth is expected to slow to 1.8%, as the economy absorbs the impact of reduced fiscal support and restrictive interest rates. The Eurozone is likely to remain in a low-growth environment, hindered by structural rigidity, persistent inflation in services, and subdued credit activity. In China, GDP growth is projected at 4.0%, as the country continues to face a difficult transition from investment-led to consumption-led growth amid property sector fragilities and weakening investor confidence. Despite facing tighter financing conditions and elevated debt burdens, EMDEs are expected to continue driving global growth, with an aggregate expansion of approximately 4.0% in 2025. Economies such as India, Indonesia, and parts of Sub-Saharan Africa are likely to outperform, supported by sustained consumer demand, public infrastructure spending, and digital transformation initiatives.

However, downside risks to the global outlook remain significant. Persistent core inflation, especially in services, could delay monetary easing, with central banks potentially maintaining tight policy stances longer than currently expected. Additional headwinds include geopolitical tensions, potential maritime trade disruptions (such as in the Red Sea), and commodity market volatility stemming from supply shocks. The global financial system also faces vulnerabilities linked to high leverage in specific sectors and geographies, particularly if interest rates stay elevated for an extended period.

In this evolving environment, policymakers in both advanced and emerging economies face the dual challenge of managing disinflation while supporting growth. Central banks, including the U.S. Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank, and several emerging market counterparts have adopted a cautious stance on rate cuts. While headline inflation has broadly moderated, core inflation remains above target in many economies, limiting the room for aggressive monetary easing.

As the global economy transitions through this complex phase, coordinated, data-driven policymaking will be critical. Progress will hinge on governments' ability to implement credible fiscal frameworks, strengthen supply-side resilience, and pursue reforms that promote inclusive and sustainable growth in an increasingly multipolar and uncertain global landscape.

Indian Economy

The Indian economy continued to expand at a steady pace in FY 2024–25, despite ongoing global uncertainties and external shocks. According to data from the National Statistical Office (NSO), GDP growth stood at 7.4% in the fourth quarter, improving from 6.2% in the previous quarter, driven by robust private consumption, sustained government capital expenditure, and a healthy recovery in services and industrial activity.

Inflationary pressures eased considerably, with CPI inflation moderating to 3.16% in April 2025, its lowest reading since mid-2019, bringing it well within the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) target range. This moderation created headroom for policy stability, allowing the central bank to maintain a balanced monetary stance while continuing to monitor global and domestic price trends.

Key high-frequency indicators remained supportive. GST collections consistently exceeded ₹1.6 lakh crore per month, signalling resilient consumption. India's current account deficit narrowed to below 1% of GDP, and foreign exchange reserves rose above USD 630 billion, reinforcing external sector stability.

The Union Budget 2025–26 reinforced growth momentum through significant policy measures. A key announcement was the full income tax rebate for individuals earning up to ₹12 lakh, aimed at stimulating household demand. The government also increased capital expenditure by over 11% year-on-year, focusing on transportation, rural infrastructure, green energy, and digital public infrastructure.

The RBI's May 2025 Bulletin and recent policy statements also underscored India's strengthening position in global trade, supported by shifting global supply chains, rising foreign investment interest, and improved logistics competitiveness.

Looking ahead, the RBI projects GDP growth at 6.7% for FY 2025–26, supported by stable inflation, healthy domestic demand, and the continued rollout of public investment. However, certain downside risks remain, including oil price volatility, capital outflows due to global monetary tightening, and persistent geopolitical tensions. Export growth is expected to stay moderate given the softening of global demand.

Despite these risks, India enters FY 2025–26 with strong macroeconomic fundamentals, a diversified growth engine, and structural drivers in place for sustained medium-term expansion.

INDIAN INSURANCE SECTOR DEVELOPMENTS

General Insurance Industry

India's non-life insurance industry crossed a significant milestone in FY 2024–25, with gross direct premium income (GDPI) exceeding ₹3 lakh crore for the first time. As per data from the General Insurance Council, total GDPI across all non-life insurers, including general insurers, standalone health insurers, and specialised entities, grew by 6.1% year-on-year, reaching ₹3.07 lakh crore, compared to ₹2.89 lakh crore in FY 2023–24.

While the growth reflects continued expansion, it also marked a moderation from the 12.8% growth recorded in the previous fiscal year, largely influenced by evolving market dynamics and the transition to new accounting standards implemented in October 2024. Among key contributors:

- General insurers accounted for ₹2.58 lakh crore in premiums, up 5.2% year-on-year
- Standalone health insurers maintained strong momentum with a 16% increase, reaching ₹38,413 crore

However, growth was tempered by subdued performance in the crop insurance segment, stagnation in passenger vehicle sales, and heightened pricing pressures in motor and health lines amid rising competition.

According to India Ratings, the industry's gross written premium (GWP) expanded by 8.5% in FY 2024–25, highlighting a period of consolidation within a dynamic regulatory and competitive landscape. Data from the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) indicates that non-life insurance penetration remained stable at 1.0% of GDP, reflecting the untapped potential for deeper market outreach, particularly in rural and underpenetrated segments. The industry continued to invest in digital infrastructure and product innovation, gradually improving distribution efficiency and policyholder engagement. The growing adoption of online platforms and data-driven underwriting is expected to support long-term cost optimisation and service improvement.

Outlook for FY 2025–26

The outlook for FY 2025–26 remains constructive, with industry forecasts indicating a recovery in growth momentum. Gross written premiums are expected to rise by approximately 13% year-on-year, driven by higher average premiums, strengthened policy renewals, broader product diversification, and increased retention in health and motor segments.

Growth is also expected from the fire and engineering insurance lines, supported by renewal activity, improved risk pricing, and regulatory clarity. Rising disposable incomes, urbanisation, and greater risk awareness are likely to underpin demand across retail and commercial segments. The regulatory landscape continues to evolve positively, with IRDAI advancing initiatives aimed at simplifying operations, enhancing digital access (e.g., through the upcoming Unified Health Interface), promoting product inclusivity, and reducing administrative costs.

Additionally, the recent liberalisation of foreign direct investment (FDI) limits from 74% to 100% is expected to foster greater international participation, facilitating capital infusion, and encouraging the adoption of global best practices across governance, technology, and risk management.

While FY 2024–25 marked a year of moderated growth, the structural fundamentals of India's general insurance sector remain sound. With supportive regulatory reforms, ongoing digital transformation, and renewed demand drivers, the industry is poised to play an increasingly vital role in advancing financial protection, inclusion, and economic resilience across the country.

Life Insurance Industry

Between FY 2023 and FY 2025, the life insurance industry achieved a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.8%, driven primarily by private sector insurers, which recorded a robust 12.7% CAGR. In contrast, Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) saw a marginal decrease in business.

India's life insurance sector posted a steady 5.1% year-on-year (YoY) increase in New Business Premiums (NBP) for the fiscal year ending March 2025, reaching ₹3.97 lakh crore—just shy of the ₹4 lakh crore milestone, according to data from CareEdge Ratings.

The Annual Premium Equivalent (APE) rose 4.5% YoY in March, reversing a 4.1% decline recorded in the same month a year earlier. The industry's growth was largely propelled by private insurers, while the Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) experienced a decrease across key segments.

Individual non-single premium policies decreased by 19.1% YoY to 41.9 lakh in volume terms for FY 2025, reflecting shifts in consumer preferences and structural changes in the product portfolio.

The growth figures were influenced by adjustments to sum assured values and commission structures following the implementation of updated surrender value guidelines on October 1, 2024. These regulatory changes, along with heightened competition, contributed to increased volatility in product performance during the second half of the fiscal year. Group single premium volumes remained largely unchanged.

It is expected that there will be some fluctuations in premium growth in the near term. However, a recovery is expected in FY 2026 as regulatory reforms begin to yield consumer benefits. The proposed Insurance Amendment Act is also poised to support market expansion by attracting new entrants. Private insurers are likely to remain key growth drivers through wider geographic outreach and initiatives such as the Bima Trinity.

Global Reinsurance Outlook 2025-26

Global reinsurers are expected to maintain healthy profitability in 2025, even as risk-adjusted pricing declined across most lines during the January renewal season, Fitch Ratings reported.

The pricing downturn reflects a surplus of capital in the market, suggesting that the reinsurance cycle has moved past its peak. Nevertheless, current market dynamics still support healthy risk-adjusted returns. Fitch projects combined ratios to remain steady at approximately 90% in 2025, while return on equity (ROE) is forecast to ease slightly to 17%, compared to 19% in 2024. As a result, the agency continues to hold a "neutral" sector outlook. S&P Global Ratings has also reaffirmed its stable outlook for the reinsurance industry, highlighting the sector's solid capital base and prudent, defensive strategies. However, the agency cautions that prolonged macroeconomic uncertainty and ongoing trade tensions could weigh on premium growth and pressure investment performance in the longer term.

AM Best has commented that although property reinsurance is beginning to show signs of softening, profit margins remain robust. AM Best attributes this trend to several years of rate hardening, adding that the overall market environment continues to favor reinsurers. Despite more favorable conditions, companies are maintaining disciplined underwriting practices to safeguard profitability and long-term viability. Casualty reinsurance, meanwhile, is under increased scrutiny but continues to be renewed without significant capacity issues. AM Best observes that some insurers are adopting a more cautious stance in light of rising claims severity and persistent litigation risks. Nevertheless, capacity remains steady. Underwriters are also placing greater emphasis on long-tail risks during renewals, ensuring pricing reflects the expected exposure landscape.

PROPERTY (FIRE & ENGINEERING)

Climate change continues to drive more frequent and severe weather events. In 2024, global natural disasters led to economic losses surpassing USD 300 billion, making it ninth consecutive year to cross this threshold, primarily due to tropical cyclones, severe convective storms, and floods. The insured losses exceeded USD 140 billion dollar, making it the sixth costliest year on record for the industry.

In response to evolving catastrophe risks, demand for reinsurance has remained elevated. The market has largely stabilised in 2024, with capacity returning with strength amid stronger market confidence. The reinsurers, with their increased risk appetite, were willing to deploy capacity through large line sizes and expanded coverage. Despite the abundance of capacity, the underwriting discipline remained at the core of decision-making for the reinsurers. Underwriting has become more selective and tailored with focus on portfolio resilience.

Secondary perils have contributed significantly to this heightened scrutiny. Once considered as peripheral, these perils have now moved to the mainstream of reinsurance risk consideration, reshaping the underwriting decisions and capital deployment strategies. Reinsurers are increasingly unwilling to allocate capacity to the lower layers of catastrophe treaties, where secondary perils such as hail and wildfire tend to concentrate. More broadly, the market is shifting towards prioritising portfolio quality, strategic flexibility, and sustainable growth.

Domestic

In FY 2024-25, the Domestic Fire Insurance market contracted by 5.34%, with gross premiums declining from ₹25,656.35 crore to ₹24,286.36 crore, reversing the 7.22% growth seen in the previous fiscal. This decline was primarily driven by a soft market cycle and heightened competition in the direct insurance space.

GIC Re's Domestic Fire Gross Premium also saw a marginal decrease of 1.4%, falling from ₹6,911.25 crore to ₹6,811.28 crore, with Obligatory cessions contributing 13.38% to the segment's total income.

Despite the topline contraction, the market benefited from fewer natural catastrophe events resulting in improved loss experience. GIC Re's underwriting performance showed a notable improvement, with the loss ratio improving from 95.5% to 85.3%. Though the combined ratio improved from 112.3% to 110.8%, the extent of improvement will not be in line with the improvement in loss ratio due to the increased commission outgo driven by lower loss ratios, intensified competition and the growing presence of Foreign Reinsurance Branches (FRBs) and Cross-Border Reinsurers (CBRs) in the Indian market.

There are signs of pricing improvement noted industry wide from January 1, 2025, which indicates a positive outlook. Consequently, gross premiums for Fire segment is projected to grow in FY 2025-26 returning to its historical growth trend.

Foreign

GIC Re's international property business (including the branches) reported a gross premium growth of approximately 15.18% for FY 2024-25 reflecting our continued engagement with key markets and strategic underwriting. However, the incurred claims ratio rose from 68.2% to 84.1%, primarily driven by major Cat events, including the Taiwan Earthquake, California wildfires, and the Dubai floods.

These developments are attributed to the growing volatility in global catastrophe activity. As climate change continues to influence the frequency and severity of both primary and secondary perils, GIC Re remains committed to reinforcing a dynamic and adaptive approach and evolving its strategies in line with emerging global risk trends.

MOTOR

Domestic

India's strong domestic market, fuelled by rising vehicle ownership, continues to demonstrate resilience. The country's motor insurance landscape is undergoing significant transformation, driven by regulatory changes, the integration of digital technologies, and the gradual adoption of telematics-based insurance policies. These factors are reshaping the market dynamics.

In the financial year 2024-25, GIC Re's domestic gross premium increased from ₹4,466.27 crore in the previous year to ₹5,232.62 crore, registering a growth of 17.16%. Notably, the combined ratio improved from 104.32% to 96.78%, indicating better underwriting performance.

In FY 2024-25, obligatory premium accounted for 76% of the gross domestic premium, while the remaining 24% came from non-obligatory business. There was a 6% increase in the obligatory gross premium for the year ended March 31, 2025, compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. During the same period, direct motor insurance premium grew by 7.94%.

Foreign

Globally, the motor insurance market has experienced strong growth. It is expected to expand from $877.75 billion in 2024 to $960.69 billion in 2025, at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 9.4%.

However, GIC Re's international motor business recorded a sharp decline in premiums. The gross premium fell by 57.54% year-on-year, from ₹2,644.66 crore in FY 2023-24 to ₹1,122.95 crore in FY 2024-25, primarily due to certain territories or treaties entering a run-off phase, with no further premium booking expected from those regions. The combined ratio slightly deteriorated, increasing from 130.77% to 133.90% during the same period.

Overall Motor

For the motor portfolio as a whole, GIC Re's gross premium declined by 10.62% year-on-year, from ₹7,110.93 crore in FY 2023-24 to ₹6,355.57 crore in FY 2024-25. However, the combined ratio improved, from 113.48% to 108.89%, reflecting better overall underwriting efficiency.

Going forward, the focus will be on revamping and expanding the international portfolio by exploring new opportunities, while strengthening GIC Re's position in the domestic market.

LIABILITY

The global liability insurance market size, which was valued at $290.46 billion in 2024, is projected to reach $428.33 billion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of 6.75%. Increased awareness of liability risks, regulatory changes mandating insurance coverage, and evolving court judgments increasing liability exposures have resulted in a significant uptick in the demand for reinsurance capacity to cover extensive and intricate liability risks across sectors like IT, healthcare, construction, and professional services. The Corporation continues to play a crucial role by offering reinsurance support to both domestic and international insurers, facilitating the expansion of their liability insurance portfolios while effectively managing own exposure to on large-scale losses. As on 31st March 2025, the Corporation achieved a GWP of INR 773 crores for Liability class with split as 70% from domestic market (₹540 crores) and 30% from foreign markets (₹233 crores). The overall GWP increased by 19% from previous year mainly due to us regaining leadership in several domestic treaties. Concurrently, the combined ratio increased from 84.6% as on 31st March 2024 to 116.7% as on 31st March 2025. The Corporation recognizes immense potential in Cyber Insurance. We will continue to adhere to our careful approach when offering cyber capacity. We plan to focus on collating more cyber data and enhance our analysis towards effectively managing exposures in this evolving sector. Going forward, the Corporation is poised to leverage expertise in underwriting and risk management to capitalize on emerging opportunities while navigating challenges and the impact of global trends on liability exposures.

MISCELLANEOUS & PERSONAL ACCIDENT

As on 31st March 2025, the Corporation generated ₹1744 crores in Gross Written Premium (GWP) for Miscellaneous and Personal Accident (PA) Insurance, primarily sourced from the domestic market (82%, ₹1432 crores) with a decent contribution from foreign markets (18%, ₹312 crores). The overall GWP increased by 33%, driven by growth in domestic premiums. The combined ratio showed improvement from 89.79% as on 31st March 2024 to 68.08% as on 31st March 2025. The Corporation's strategic focus on innovative products like parametric income protection and identity theft insurance demonstrates adaptability to the dynamic insurance landscape. The Corporation aims to provide continued support to both domestic and foreign insurers, facilitating growth in their Miscellaneous and PA insurance portfolios while maintaining profitability in its own operation

CREDIT RE

Valued at ₹2,135 Crore in domestic premiums for FY 2024-25, India's credit insurance market is currently dominated by a single player, ECGC, with 64% market share. However, the landscape is evolving. Other general insurance companies are leveraging their growth aspirations and expertise to tap into this growing market. Additionally, the introduction of Surety Bonds in 2022 has spurred the insurance companies to offer customized products such as bid bond, performance bonds etc. This is leading to a shift away from traditional bank guarantees and towards bond issuance. The Corporation remains a key player, providing crucial reinsurance capacity in this dynamic market. As on 31st March 2025, Credit Re GWP is ₹300 Crores, with 70% premium generated from domestic market (₹209 crores) and 30% from foreign market (₹91 crores). The combined ratio saw an improvement, dropping from 50.5% as on 31st March 2024 to 8.9% as on 31st March 2025. Despite growth opportunities in developing economies, rising interest rates and potential slowdowns might increase credit risk. We plan to navigate this segment in domestic and international markets with prudent exposure management.

HEALTH

India's health insurance sector is expanding rapidly, fuelled by growing public awareness. The health market offers a variety of plans, including individual, family, and specialized policies for critical illnesses and senior citizens. Government schemes like Ayushman Bharat have significantly increased coverage. Although the sector faces challenges like low penetration and regulatory complexities, it shows strong growth potential. The advent of digital technologies and innovative services, such as telemedicine and wellness programs, is transforming the industry, enhancing accessibility and customer focus.

Industry premium has grown by 6.21% vis-a-vis the health market has emerged as one of the most rapidly expanding segments in the insurance industry over the past few years, with an impressive annual growth rate of 8.98% as on 31.03.2025. (source: GI Council). This growth becomes more significant since IRDAI recently revised formats for long term policies.

The health insurance sector is poised for substantial growth and competitive dynamics which underscores the sector's economic potential. Nevertheless, the paramount importance of health insurance extends beyond mere statistics, as it upholds profound social significance for all stakeholders involved, ensuring access to essential healthcare services.

The Corporation's health portfolio is diversified across several key areas:

- Obligatory cessions: These mandatory reinsurance contracts require primary insurers to cede 4% of their health business to the Corporation, making up a 49% of our portfolio.

- Domestic treaty business: This includes reinsurance agreements with domestic insurers, both proportional (sharing premiums and risks) and non-proportional (covering specific losses).
- Facultative business: This involves reinsurance on an individual risk basis, providing greater flexibility in underwriting and pricing.
- Government Mass Schemes: The Corporation also participates in large-scale government health insurance programs.

With a clear strategic focus on expanding its health insurance portfolio, the Corporation has adopted a prudent and methodical underwriting approach. This approach emphasizes sustainable growth, robust risk management, and diversification across product lines. In FY 2024–25, health insurance accounted for 23.15% of the total gross premium, reflecting the Corporation's strong performance—particularly in the proportional and facultative reinsurance segments.

Through targeted initiatives and disciplined underwriting practices, the Corporation successfully reduced obligatory cessions from 72% of health reinsurance premiums in FY 2023–24 to 49% in FY 2024–25, despite a stable cession rate of 4%. This shift underscores the Corporation's strategic emphasis on strengthening premium growth within the health line of business.

We are dedicated to fostering growth in the Indian health insurance market, with a strong focus on profitability. Our strategy includes improving product quality, carefully evaluating risks, streamlining underwriting processes, and managing claims effectively, all while adapting to regulatory changes and ensuring full compliance.

AGRICULTURE REINSURANCE

In India, Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY) was introduced in Kharif 2016, administered by the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare. It replaced the National Agricultural Insurance Scheme (NAIS) and Modified National Agricultural Insurance Scheme (MNAIS).

PMFBY provides a comprehensive insurance cover against failure of the crop thus helping in stabilising the income of the farmers and encourage them for adoption of innovative and modern agriculture practices. It covers various stages of crop production from Sowing to Harvesting.

For 2024-25, various states have implemented surplus sharing models (SSM) like 80:110 and 60:130 with idea of capping the loss ratios.

SSM (80:110) - Liability of the insurer is limited to the loss ratio range 80%–110%. That is, the insurer will return to the state all premiums associated with any profits realized on loss ratios below 80%. On the loss side, the State government will bear all losses for loss ratios above 110%.

SSM (60:130) - Liability of the insurer is limited to the loss ratio range 60%–130%. That is, the insurer will return to the state all premiums associated with any profits realized on loss ratios below 60%. On the loss side, the State & Central Government will bear all losses for loss ratios above 130% equally

The contribution of SSM models in the total agriculture insurance premium in the country is currently estimated at 65% to 70% of total market premium.

Govt. of India has taken several new technological initiatives under the PMFBY and RWBCIS to empower farmers, streamlining the operations in crop insurance and promote transparency in loss assessment, such as YES-TECH, WINDS and CROPIC.

YES-TECH: Yield Estimation System based on Technology (YES-TECH) advocates the blended use of modelled and Crop Cutting Experiments yield-estimates for insurance claim assessment.

WINDS: Weather information and Network Data System (WINDS) is a programmatic initiative to strengthen weather data infrastructure in the country and to provide good quality weather datasets from a single digital platform.

CROPIC: Collection of Real Time Observations & Photographs of Crops (CROPIC) is a Smart phone-based crop data repository and pictorial analytics to detect crop losses.

GIC Re continues to support the crop insurance scheme in India, i.e. Revamped Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana scheme (Revamped PMFBY, w.e.f., Kharif 2020 season) & Revised Weather Based Crop Insurance Scheme (RWBCIS) from 2016; by way of extending reinsurance support on quota share treaty and stop loss treaty arrangements of the Indian Insurance companies.

The gross premium under Agriculture portfolio reduced to ₹3263.05 Crore in FY 2024-25 from ₹3,685.36 Crore in FY 2023-24. The split of GIC Re's Agriculture portfolio between Indian and International business is 97.70% and 2.30% respectively.

The Indian agriculture market premium for year 2023-24 and 2024-25 is around ₹31,400 Crore. Out of which the corporation's Indian gross agriculture premium has reduced to ₹3188.04 Crore in FY 2024-25 from ₹3601.11 Crore in FY 2023-24, a degrowth of 11.47%. The contribution of obligatory premium is approx. 36% of gross Indian agriculture premium. The degrowth in the domestic portfolio is due to increased contribution of SSM models in the market resulting in increased retentions of the domestic insurance companies. The loss ratio in respect of the Indian business has improved to 90.42% in FY 2024-25 from 96.44% in FY 2023-24.

GIC Re's International gross agriculture premium has decreased to ₹75.01 Crore in FY 2024-25 from ₹84.25 Crore in FY 2023-24, a degrowth of 10.96%. Also, the loss ratio for International agricultural book has deteriorated to 50.04% in FY 2024-25 from 42.04% in FY 2023-24.

Looking ahead to FY 2025-26, most states are expected to continue under existing multi-year agreements. However, states like Maharashtra and Odisha are anticipated to float re-tenders, which may present new opportunities for reinsurance participation.

MARINE CLASS (CARGO, HULL AND OIL & ENERGY)

MARINE CARGO

Domestic

The domestic cargo market continues to exhibit a steady demand for coverage, particularly for high-risk segments like inflammable substances, automobile sectors for complete built units and pharmaceutical products. Requests for the coverage of Stock throughput policies in market are going up. The market pricing is anticipated to remain soft in the upcoming financial year due to recent pricing corrections and challenging geopolitical factors. Even, the facultative market remains soft. Hence, to retain leadership we have adopted the current market trends and price. However, to mitigate risks, we will continue to uphold underwriting discipline by enforcing minimum rates and deductibles.

In the Persian Gulf region, there are very few losses in past 3 years, therefore London market is providing leverage in the rates charged which was more than other parts of the world. So, following the current market scenario we are reviewing the HRA rates which may further reduce.

There has been an increase of 6.9% in marine cargo gross premium for Indian market to 3939.96 crores in FY 2024-25 as compared to previous year gross premium of 3686.24 Crores. The corporation's domestic marine cargo gross premium decreased by 12.98% to 376.96 crores as compared to gross domestic marine premium of 433.18 Crores in 2023-24.

The corporation's primary focus is on non-proportional treaties and within the segment, it has been providing coverage for diverse cargo types excluding perishable items, aquamarine products and frozen foods. Additionally, the emphasis has been on appropriate clauses, conditions and warranties to meet client needs while advancing our underwriting approach. Ongoing treaty reviews ensure necessary improvements in underwriting performance.

International

The global cargo insurance landscape is undergoing significant changes due to a confluence of factors. Economic slowdown, central bank policies, geopolitical tensions, and supply chain disruptions are creating a complex environment.

Global economic deceleration and central banks' anti-inflation measures may reduce trade volumes, impacting cargo insurance. Geopolitical instability, particularly in Russia - Ukraine and Israel - Palestine, along with Red sea crisis is further exacerbating these challenges. The industry is grappling with rate reduction, risk accumulation, and coverage with discounted rate for STP and STOP policy. Consequently, the marine reinsurance market is witnessing rate decrease.

Marine Cargo Foreign book decreased to 134.50 Crores reflecting 76.16% decrease from the previous year 2023-24 of 564.15 Crores. However, this is primarily attributable to claims related to the terminated US binder agreement, rather than organic portfolio deterioration.

The year 2024-25 was relatively free from major losses for this class of business with very few losses in cargo like MV Frankfurt.

MARINE HULL (INCLUDING OIL & ENERGY)

Domestic

The corporation maintains a strong focus on the facultative segment of the domestic marine hull market, which remains predominantly driven by facultative reinsurance. We actively participate in domestic facultative policies, subject to adequate pricing. Domestic hull insurance rates have softened compared to the previous year due to availability of reinsurance capacity. The Gross marine hull premium for Indian market grew by 13.5% to 1595.33 crore in FY 2024-25 over expiring year of gross premium of 1405.25 in 2023-24, while corporation's domestic hull book saw a surge of 17.92% to 236.27 Crores from expiry gross premium of ₹200.36 crores in 2023-24. The corporation continued to refrain from participating in the risks that had inadequate pricing. Aligned with the government's initiative to boost ports and shipbuilding, the corporation is committed to supporting upcoming projects. There has been increase in demand for RI capacity for Ship Builders Risks. The combined ratio for the domestic hull portfolio has performed better from 63.04% in 2023-24 to 57.48% in 2024-25.

International

The international hull market is facing unprecedented challenges. Geopolitical tensions, supply chain disruptions, inflation, and evolving risk profiles, are driving market volatility.

The war in Ukraine, the Red Sea crisis, and material shortages, primarily steel, have significantly impacted the industry. Rising inflation has increased costs across the value chain, eroding insurers' profitability. The frequency of fires on container ships and car carriers, exacerbated by the transportation of lithium-ion batteries and electric vehicles, poses new challenges. There are no large losses this year.

The corporation has adopted a calibrated approach, withdrawing from upstream energy policies with inadequate pricing and low deductibles. The corporation is exploring opportunities in upstream energy construction and P&I insurance with higher attachment points. While the hull insurance market is undergoing rate adjustments, the impact on P&I insurance is yet to be fully realized.

The corporation's marine hull foreign book increased by 6.71% to 331.55 crores in FY 2024-25 from expiry 310.71 Crores in 2023-24. The international hull portfolio recorded an adverse combined ratio of 133.78%, primarily attributed to oil rig explosion in Gulf of Mexico.

AVIATION

The worldwide aviation insurance sector has been experiencing robust growth in recent years, driven by an increase in air passenger traffic, the emergence of low-cost carriers, greater aircraft complexity, elevated security risks, and concerns related to ESG (Environment, Social & Governance).

A soft market cycle continues in the airline policies but with healthy levels of insurance capacity available, the market can absorb the increased exposures, rate reductions and market players are holding on to their market shares. Market claims activity relating to recent major losses, coupled with ongoing attritional claims and geopolitical risks, mean that negotiations are likely to be more robust in 2025 than in 2024.

Aviation remains one of the safest forms of transportation. According to the IATA 2024 Safety report, the "all accident rate" stands at 1.13 per million flights (equating to one accident for every 880,000 flights), which is an improvement over the five-year average of 1.25 per million flights. This rate is only slightly higher than the record low of 1.03 noted in 2023, the lowest in the past decade. Despite some recent high-profile aviation incidents, it is crucial to keep in mind that such accidents are exceedingly rare. In 2024, there were 40.6 million flights and only seven fatal accidents. Furthermore, the overarching narrative of aviation safety is one of ongoing improvement.

Some major market losses in Jeju Air, Azerbaijan Airlines, Air Busan & American Airlines (in Q3 & Q4 of FY 2024-25) is expected to drive hardening in the premium rates. GIC Re however did not participate in majority of these airlines.

The Aviation Excess of loss (XOL) treaty market continues to be in the hard market cycle which was seen in previous underwriting years due to deterioration of Boeing loss in the XOL market and high uncertainty with the regards to losses reserved for Russia-Ukraine War which is expected to reach a resolution in Q2 of FY 2025-26.

GIC Re's gross premium income has decreased by 15.66% to ₹729.08 Crore in the FY 2024-25 as against ₹864.45 Crore in the previous FY 2023-24. The incurred claims as % to earned premium has reduced to 87.40% for FY 2024-25 vis-à-vis 92.44% for FY 2023-24. This can be mainly attributed to continuous review of accounts with high attritional claims at portfolio level, reduced claims activity at market level.

The gross premium split comprises 87.87% from international business and 12.12% from domestic business for FY 2024-25 as against 90.70% from international business and 9.30% from domestic business for previous FY 2024-25. The portfolio continues to be primarily focused on international business, but efforts are made to maintain domestic account signings and increasing them wherever possible to bring balance to the overall portfolio.

REINSURANCE POOLS IN INDIA

The practice of establishment of reinsurance pools to cater to situations where supply of insurance is a constraint is well accepted globally. Time and again, the Indian Market has also adopted the practice to overcome capacity challenges imposed by insufficient availability or withdrawal of international reinsurance support. GIC Re, as the Indian Reinsurer has played a pivotal role in creation and successful operation of pools for over two decades. GIC Re has been managing Pools in India and provides its support with very significant capacity as a pool member and as its reinsurer.

THE INDIAN MARKET TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE POOL

The Indian Market Terrorism Risk Insurance Pool (IMTRIP) was established in the aftermath of the 9/11 incident in the United States which led to worldwide withdrawal of treaty capacity for Terrorism Insurance. The Pool was formed in April 2002 to create domestic capacity within India to underwrite terrorism risk. The Pool has now completed 23 years of successful operations. Twenty-four non-life insurance companies (other than monoline insurers) and GIC Re are members of the Pool.

The Pool is applicable to insurance of terrorism risk covered under property insurance policies. There was no change in the capacity offered by the Pool from previous year which is ₹2,000 Crore per location. Premium rates also remained unchanged from previous year.

The Pool continues to experience decline in premium cessions on account of launch of alternate products by insurance companies wherein Terrorism is an optional cover. (Earlier, terrorism coverage was a compulsory coverage under standard Fire and allied perils products.) Reduction in inward premium was also observed during H2 2024-25 on account of change in premium accounting methodology for Long-Term Policies as per IRDAI Master Circular on Actuarial, Finance and Investment Functions of Insurers dated 17.05.2024.

The Pool's assets stand at ₹18,172 Crore as at 31.03.2025 (₹15,799 Crore as on 31.03.2024). GIC Re as Pool Manager gets 1% (of original gross premium) Management Commission. Apart from its role as Pool Manager, GIC Re also contributes capacity to the Pool as a member of the Pool to the tune of 16.68% and participates as a reinsurer on the Pool's excess of loss reinsurance protection.

5 years pool premium and claims ratio are as per bar chart below.

INDIA NUCLEAR INSURANCE POOL (INIP)

INIP was formed as an initiative by the Corporation along with 11 domestic non-life Insurance companies to provide insurance cover to nuclear operators against their statutory liability under the Civil Liability for Nuclear Damage Act, 2010, resulting from a nuclear incident, and liabilities of Suppliers to the Operator arising out of invocation of right to recourse under the Act.

The Pool provides annual indemnity limit of ₹1500 Crore on any one accident and in the aggregate.

The pool capacity and rates have remained constant for last one year. No claims have been reported under INIP since its inception. The Pool's assets stand at ₹1255 Crore as on 31.03.2025. (₹1055 Crore as on 31.03.2024).

GIC Re as a member has 40% share in the pool. GIC Re as Pool Manager gets Management Commission of 1% (of original gross premium).

MARINE CARGO EXCLUDED TERRITORIES POOL (MCET POOL)

Due to the withdrawal of international marine cargo insurance capacity for covering imports and exports to/from Russia, Ukraine, and Belarus, there arose a need to create a domestic Marine Cargo Pool to insure shipments related to these Excluded Territories. This withdrawal of capacity stemmed from increased geopolitical risks, sanctions, and instability in these areas, making it difficult for Indian businesses to obtain necessary insurance coverage. Consequently, the Marine Cargo Pool for Excluded Territories (MCET Pool) was formed and commenced operations on 1st June 2022.

Currently, the MCET Pool provides insurance to Indian insureds for marine cargo shipments of approved commodities to and from the excluded territories of Russia, Ukraine, and Belarus.

The Pool was initially formed with a total of 21 members, contributing a capacity of ₹484.80 crores per shipment (net of obligatory cession limits). This was later revised to ₹478.80 crores per shipment following the exit of one Pool member. The Pool's capacity remains unchanged for the year 2024–25.

GIC Re, as the Pool Manager, along with the Pool's Underwriting Committee (UC), approves the inclusion of new commodities under the Pool as needed. Currently covered commodities include fertilizers, pet coke, coal, crude oil and its derivatives, project cargo, steel, etc. Whenever a new commodity is proposed by any Pool member, the UC—including GIC Re—reviews and determines the applicable rates and terms.

The Pool covers import shipments of all approved commodities. GIC Re holds the largest capacity share at 51.56%. As the Pool Manager, GIC Re receives a 2.5% management commission on the original gross premium (net of obligatory cession).

The accounted premium of the Pool since inception is as below:

LIFE RE

Life reinsurance plays a critical role in stabilizing the risk portfolios of life insurers and enabling product innovation and expansion. In India, the life reinsurance landscape has seen increasing competition and diversification, with global reinsurers such as Swiss Re, Munich Re, Hannover Re, SCOR, and RGA actively participating through their branch offices.

GIC Re leveraging deep local market understanding and robust client relationships. The Corporation is uniquely positioned as the only Indian reinsurer with a strong presence across all life reinsurance segments in the country.

GIC Re held an 18% share of the Indian life reinsurance market (Source: IRDAI Annual Report for FY 2023–24) reaffirming its strategic role in the industry. The Corporation currently extends reinsurance support to 24 Indian life insurance companies through both Treaty and Facultative arrangements.

In alignment with the Government of India's financial inclusion agenda, GIC Re remains a committed partner in flagship schemes such as Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJBY), Microfinance-linked credit life products, and the IRDAI-mandated Saral Jeevan Bima.

The Corporation recorded a notable increase in gross life reinsurance premium, rising from ₹1,618 Crore in FY 2023–24 to ₹1,867 Crore in FY 2024–25, reflecting a year-on-year growth of 15%. This 15% growth in gross life reinsurance premium from FY 2023–24 to FY 2024–25 reflects the Corporation's enhanced risk assessment and underwriting precision, driven by detailed analysis of claim frequency and severity. Strategic adjustments in product design, pricing, have further contributed to this upward trajectory of new GTL business specifically. These improvements position the Corporation for continued market share expansion and portfolio sustainability.

GIC Re's life reinsurance portfolio is well-diversified and strategically aligned with the needs of both retail and group segments. The primary business segments are as follows:

- Group Credit Life – Microfinance Institutions (28%) Insurance linked to microloans serving economically vulnerable populations. These are typically structured under quota share reinsurance arrangements, supporting inclusive growth through protection of small-scale credit.
- Group Credit Life – Non-Microfinance (16%) Products designed to mitigate credit risk for institutional lenders by covering outstanding loan liabilities in the event of the borrower's death. These support portfolio protection in structured finance sectors.
- Individual Term and Savings Plans (31%) Tailored products offering long-term financial protection and savings benefits. During the current financial year, GIC Re has made significant progress by entering long-term quota share treaties, reflecting product and process maturity.
- Group Term Life (21%) Short-term life covers, usually up to 12 months, for employer-employee and affinity groups. The Corporation has enhanced its offering by including Terminal Illness (TI) riders and increasing Free Cover Limits (FCL) on a case-by-case basis.
- Health Products (3%) Fixed-benefit health insurance offerings that provide a lump-sum payment upon hospitalization, independent of actual medical costs incurred.
- As per the Corporation's Balance Sheet for FY 2024–25, the portfolio is divided between domestic (88%) and international (12%) business, reflecting GIC Re's focused approach to domestic development while selectively expanding its international footprint.

GIC Re, with a 18% market share in life reinsurance, is poised to lead this growth, building on its strong domestic foundation and exploring selective international opportunities and continues to demonstrate strong leadership in India's life reinsurance market, marked by premium growth, product innovation, and alignment with national objectives. With a focus on efficiency, client-centricity, and responsible underwriting, the Corporation is well-positioned to capitalize on emerging opportunities and steer the industry forward in the years to come.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

The future outlook for the reinsurance industry in 2025 is cautiously optimistic, with strong fundamentals supporting profitability but several headwinds creating uncertainty. These include climate change, risks of natural disasters and new regulations in the offing. Competition amongst insurers is expected to result in soft pricing and moderation in profitability. Underwriting is expected to be disciplined and overall, the market is expected to be favourable for reinsurers.

5. Does the entity have a business continuity and disaster management plan? Give details of entity at which business continuity and disaster management plan is placed or web link.

The Corporation has a Business Continuity Plan in place. As part of its allied activities, the ERM department annually reviews the Business Continuity Plan (BCP) and Business Impact assessment (BIA) which aims at providing continuity of services at a defined minimum acceptable level of critical functions and to safeguard the financial, competitive and reputational position in the short and medium term.

The Business Continuity Procedural Manual defines a structure for managing a business interruption, outlines a methodology for communicating and coordinating internal and customer related recovery tasks, and provides information and procedures required for GIC Re departments to recover mission critical and critical business functions / processes within required time frames. 12. The accompanying Standalone Financial Statements have been approved by the Company's Board of Directors. The Corporation's Board of Directors is responsible for matters as stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and Cash flows of the Corporation in accordance with the Insurance Act 1938, as amended, by the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 ("the Insurance Act"), the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority Act, 1999 ("the IRDAI Act"), the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (Actuarial, Finance and Investment Functions of Insurers) Regulations, 2024 ("Regulations"), the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") including the Accounting Standard specified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India.
13. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the act for safeguarding of the assets of the Corporation and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation & presentation of the Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.
14. In preparing the Standalone Financial Statements, the management is responsible for assessing the ability of the Corporation's to continue as Going Concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Corporation or to cease operations, as has no realistic alternative but to do so.
15. The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Corporation's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

16. Our Objective are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Financial Statements.
17. As part of an audit in accordance with SA's, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:
  - Identify and assess the risks of material misstatements of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud and error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentation, or the override of internal controls.
  - Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Corporation has in place an adequate internal financial control systems over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
  - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
  - Conclude on the appropriateness of the management use of going concern basis of accounting and, based on audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or condition may cause the Corporation to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of Standalone Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
18. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
  19. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with the relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and where applicable, related safeguards.
  20. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the Key Audit Matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.
  21. Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that individually or in aggregate makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements.

"ANNEXURE B" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF GENERAL INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA

(Referred to in paragraph 24(l) in section "Report on other legal and regulatory Requirements" forming part of the Independent Auditor's report dated 26th May 2025)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

1. We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of General Insurance Corporation of India ("the Corporation") as at 31st March 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the Corporation for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Corporation's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Corporation considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Corporation's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013, the Insurance Act, the IRDAI Act, the Regulations and orders/directions prescribed by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India ("IRDAI") in this behalf and current practices prevailing within the insurance industry in India.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Corporation's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
4. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
5. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error. Commensurate to the size and nature of the business, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Corporation's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A Corporation's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Standalone Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Corporation's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Corporation; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Standalone Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that receipts and expenditures of the Corporation are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Corporation; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Corporation's assets that could have a material effect on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, commensurate with the size & nature of business, the Corporation has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31st 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Corporation considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

Other Matters

9. The actuarial valuation of policy liabilities in respect of Claims Incurred but not Reported (IBNR) and those Incurred but not Enough Reported (IBNER) as at March 31st 2025 is as certified by the Corporation's Appointed Actuaries and has been relied upon by us as mentioned in paragraph 9 of our audit report on the Standalone Financial Statements for the year ended March 31st 2025. Accordingly, our opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting does not include reporting on the operating effectiveness of the management's internal controls over the valuation and accuracy of aforesaid actuarial valuation.

|-------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| Profit after Tax        | ₹6,70,136 lakhs | ₹6,49,730 Lakhs |
| Number of equity shares | 17,544 lakhs    | ₹ 17,544 Lakhs  |

| Basic and Diluted EPS   | ₹38.20          | ₹37.03          |

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the profit or loss after tax for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equities shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the profit or loss after tax for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share from continuing ordinary operations. Potential dilutive equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period unless they have been issued at a later date. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

21. Our objective is to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SA's will always detect a material misstatement when they exist. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Financial Statements.
22. As part of an audit in accordance with SA's, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatements of the Consolidated Financial Statements, whether due to fraud and error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentation, or the override of internal controls.
  - Obtain and understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the Corporation has in place and adequate internal financial control systems over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
  - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
  - Conclude on the appropriateness of the management use of going concern basis of accounting and, based on audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group and its Associate's ability continue as a going concern. . Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or condition may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
  - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
23. Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Consolidated Financial Statements.
24. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
25. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with the relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and where applicable, related safeguards.
26. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of Consolidated Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the Key Audit Matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

"ANNEXURE A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF GENERAL INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA

(Referred to in paragraph 27(l) in section "Report on other legal & regulatory Requirements" forming part of the Independent Auditor's report dated 26th May 2025)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

1. In conjunction with our Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Corporation as of and for the year ended 31st March 2025, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of General Insurance Corporation of India ("the Holding Company") and its Associate Incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its Associate to whom reporting under clause (i) of sub section 3 of Section 143 of the Act in respect of the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting is applicable, which are companies incorporated in India are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Corporation considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Corporation's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013, the Insurance Act, the IRDAI Act, the Regulations and orders/directions prescribed by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India ("IRDAI") in this behalf and current practices prevailing within the insurance industry in India.

Auditors' Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Corporation's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
4. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
5. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error. Commensurate to the size and nature of the business, we believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Corporation's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

6. A Corporation's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Corporation's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Corporation; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that receipts and expenditures of the Corporation are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Corporation; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Corporation's assets that could have a material effect on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, commensurate with the size & nature of business, the Corporation has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Corporation considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

Other Matters

9. As per the information and explanations provided by the management, the financial statements of the Associate Company incorporated in India have not been audited till the date of our Audit on the Consolidated Financial Statement of the Group, hence we are unable to comment on the adequacy of internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Associate. However, the Associate is not a material component of the Groups; hence we have not qualified our opinion on this matter.
10. The actuarial valuation of policy liabilities in respect of Claims Incurred but not Reported (IBNR) and those Incurred but not Enough Reported (IBNER) as at 31st March 2025, is as certified by the Appointed Actuary as per the regulations, and has been relied upon by us, as mentioned in our audit report on the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2025. Accordingly, our opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting does not include reporting on the operating effectiveness of the management's internal controls over the valuation and accuracy of the aforesaid actuarial valuation.

8. Earnings per Share (EPS) as per Accounting Standards 20:

| Particulars             | 2024-25         | 2023-24         |
|-------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| Profit after Tax        | ₹7,43,185 lakhs | ₹6,68,583 Lakhs |
| Number of equity shares | ₹17,544 lakhs   | ₹17,544 Lakhs   |
| Nominal value of share  | ₹5/-            | ₹5/-            |
| Basic and Diluted EPS   | ₹42.36          | ₹38.11          |

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the Profit or Loss After Tax for the year attributable to Equity Shareholders by the weighted average number of Equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted Earnings Per Share, the Profit or Loss After Tax for the year attributable to Equity Shareholders and the weighted average number of Shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential Equity Shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Potential Equity Shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to Equity Shares would decrease the Net Profit per share from continuing ordinary operations. Potential dilutive Equity Shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. The dilutive potential Equity Shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value. Dilutive potential Equity Shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The Directors submit their Strategic Report for GIC Re, India, Corporate Member Limited (the Company) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Principal Activities

The Company is incorporated in the United Kingdom ('U.K.') and is a corporate member of the Society of Lloyd's (Lloyd's). The Company underwrites with various Lloyd's Syndicates based on Limited Liability Quota Share Reinsurance Agreement (LLQSRA) with its parent company General Insurance Corporation of India.

During the year, the Company has underwritten (on a limited liability basis) on Lloyd's Syndicate 1955, Syndicate 5183, Syndicate 1947, Syndicate 2454 and Syndicate 1609 ('the Syndicates'). The table below summarises the Company's insurance capacity on the Syndicates by underwriting year.

Syndicate 1955 was established in 2007. The principal activity of the Syndicate is the transaction of general insurance and reinsurance business in the Marine, Property, Financial Lines and Accident & Health and Casualty classes.

Syndicate 5183 was established in the 2022 year of account by Micro Insurance Company, under the Lloyd's 'Syndicate In A Box' initiative. MIC's business model is focussed on embedded insurance – short tail, low limit, little or no cat products with very low loss adjustment expenses.

Syndicate 1947 was established in the 2018 year of account and underwrites on the property, agriculture and engineering lines of business. The Syndicate is backed solely by General Insurance Corporation of India and includes risks ceded from that company.

Syndicate 2454 was established in the 2024 year of account and underwrites specialty insurance and reinsurance business at Lloyd's of London, with a primary focus on risks of African origin.

Syndicate 1609 was established in 2021 and writes cyber, financial lines, political risk, political violence, professional lines, and transactional liability business.

General Insurance Corporation of India ('the Parent Reinsurer') proportionately reinsures 100% of all the Company's underwriting business from the Syndicates.

Business Review

Key Financial Performance Indicators

In the opinion of the Directors, the key financial performance indicators below best represent the performance and position of the Company before reinsurance of all its underwriting business from the Company to the Parent reinsurer.

|                               | 2024Syndicate Results£000 | 2024Quota Share£000 |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Gross written premiums        | 153,114                           | (153,114)                   |
| Outward reinsurance premiums  | (29,125)                          | 29,125                      |
| Profit for the financial year | 10,780                            | (10,780)                    |
| Profit on capacity            | 6.9%                              |                             |

Non-financial Key Performance Indicators

Due to the nature of the Company's operations as a Lloyd's corporate member, the Syndicates carry out the majority of the Company's activities. The Company is not directly involved in the management of each Syndicate's activities, including the employment of staff. The Syndicate Managing Agents are responsible for the management of their Syndicates. The Managing Agents also have responsibility for the environmental activities of the Syndicates, though by their nature, insurers generally do not produce significant environmental emissions. Therefore, the Directors do not consider it appropriate to monitor and report any performance indicators for staff or environmental matters.

Member Outward Reinsurance Arrangement

The Company proportionally reinsures all its underwriting business from each Syndicate to the Parent Reinsurer. Outward reinsurance premiums equal the Company's share of Syndicate gross premiums, less Syndicate outward reinsurance premiums; reinsured liabilities equal the Company's share of Syndicate losses and expenses, less investment income. The reinsurance contract limits the Company's net reinsurance recoveries to the reinsurer's related funds at Lloyd's. The Parent Reinsurer reimburses the Company for member administrative expenses (including audit and accounting fees and other expenses) up to a limit of £500,000.

Risk Review

Insurance risks

As a corporate member of Lloyd's, most of the significant insurance risks and uncertainties facing the Company arise from its participation on the Syndicates. The Company's role in managing these risks is limited to monitoring Syndicate performance. This starts in advance of committing support to each Syndicate for the following underwriting year, with a review of each Syndicate business plan as prepared by the Syndicate's Managing Agent. During the year, the Directors monitor and, if necessary, enquire into Syndicate quarterly reports and annual accounts together with any other information made available by the Managing Agents. If the Directors deem a particular risk in a Syndicate to be excessive, they will seek confirmation from the relevant Managing Agent that adequate management of the risk is in place and, if considered appropriate, may withdraw the Company's support from the next underwriting year if they are not satisfied with the Managing Agent's response.

The Annual Reports of the Directors of the Managing Agents on the audited annual accounts for each Syndicate detail the significant risks and uncertainties facing the Syndicates. The Managing Agents manage these risks together with the Syndicate service providers.

Since the Company proportionately reinsures all its underwriting business to the Parent Reinsurer, the risks it faces from its participation on the Syndicates are significantly reduced. The Company, however, faces the risk that the Parent Reinsurer will not meet its reinsurance obligations, though the Directors consider this risk remote, since the Parent Reinsurer provided a £24.2 million letter of credit to Lloyd's (Funds at Lloyd's) to collateralise its reinsurance obligations to the Company. In addition, the Parent Reinsurer has deposited £203.9 million Funds at Lloyd's (2023: £246.7 million).

Operational Risk

Since the Company only undertakes a few transactions of its own, it has limited systems and staffing requirements. Therefore, the Directors do not consider the Company's operational risks to be significant. Close involvement of the Directors in the Company's key decision making and the fact that the Syndicates conduct a majority of the Company's operations provides control over any remaining operational risk.

Foreign Exchange

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk through the Syndicates' liabilities under policies of insurance denominated in currencies other than Sterling. The most significant currencies to which the syndicate is exposed are US Dollar, Canadian Dollar and the Euro. Where possible, the Syndicates seek to mitigate the risk by matching the estimated foreign currency denominated liabilities with assets denominated in the same currency. There is a natural matching to currency risk as claims are normally paid in the currency of the original policy. The Company did not undertake any transactions of its own during the year except for administrative expenses and a payment to a broker made directly by the Corporate Member.

Market, Credit, and Liquidity Risk

Other significant risks faced by the Company include its investment of available funds within its own custody. The elements of these risks are interest rate, investment price, and liquidity risk. Liquidity risk would arise if the Syndicates have inadequate liquid resources for a large claim and sought funds from the Company to pay the claim. In order to minimise interest rate, investment price, and liquidity risk, the Company is supported by the letter of credit and the funds provided by the Parent Reinsurer at Lloyd's.

Since the Company did not undertake many transactions of its own, the Directors do not consider currency or credit risk to be significant.

Regulatory and Compliance Risk

The Company is subject to continuing approval by Lloyd's to be a corporate member of the Syndicates. The Company reduces the risk of this approval being revoked by monitoring and fully complying with all its Lloyd's membership requirements.

The capital requirements to support the proposed amount of Syndicate insurance capacity for future years are set by Lloyd's. Lloyd's takes a variety of factors into account when setting these requirements including market conditions and Syndicate performance. Though Lloyd's intends for the process to be fair and reasonable, the requirements can fluctuate from one year to the next, which may constrain the amount of Syndicate insurance capacity that the Company can support going forward.

Section 172(1) Companies Act 2006 Reporting

The Directors have acted in a way that they considered, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of Company for the benefits of its members as a whole, and in doing so had regard (amongst other matters) to the matters listed in section 172(1) (a) to (f) when performing their duties and comment as follows:

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities in respect of the Strategic Report, the Directors' Report and the Financial Statements 31 December 2024

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Strategic Report, the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law they have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK Accounting Standards and applicable law (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland and with the Companies Act 2006.

Under Company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Directors have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the Company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

The directors confirm that so far as they are aware, there is no relevant audit information (as defined by section 418(3) of the Companies Act 2006) of which the company's auditors are unaware. They have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as directors in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information.

Opinion

We have audited the Financial Statements of GIC Re, India, Corporate Member Limited (the “Company”) for the year ended 31 December 2024 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Statement of Comprehensive Income, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Changes in Equity, the Statement of Cash Flows and notes to the Financial Statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 “The Financial Reporting Standard as applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland” (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the Financial Statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Company’s affairs as at 31 December 2024 and of its result for the year then ended.
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Financial Statements in the UK, including the FRC’s Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors’ use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the entity’s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report

However, as we cannot predict all future events or conditions and as subsequent events may result in outcomes that are inconsistent with judgements that were reasonable at the time they were made, the absence of reference to a material uncertainty in this auditor’s report is not a guarantee that the company will continue in operation.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the Financial Statements and our auditor’s report thereon. The Directors are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the Financial Statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the Financial Statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Strategic Report and the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the Financial Statements are prepared is consistent with the Financial Statements; and
- the Strategic Report and the Directors' Report have been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the Company and its environment obtained in the course of audit, we have not identified any material misstatements in the Strategic Report or the Directors' Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the Financial Statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of Directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of Directors

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement, the Directors are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Financial Statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: <http://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect irregularities, including fraud. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion.

The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud, is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with those charged with governance of the Company. Our approach was as follows:

- We obtained a general understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the Company and determined that the most significant are direct laws and regulations, related to continuing approval by Lloyd's to be a corporate member of the syndicate meeting the capital requirements as set out by the Lloyds, company's legislation and the financial reporting framework (UK GAAP). We obtained a general understanding of how the Company is complying with those frameworks by making enquiries of management and those responsible for legal and compliance matters of the Company.

- For both direct and other laws and regulations, our procedures involved: making enquiry of the directors of the Company for their awareness of any noncompliance of laws or regulations, inquiring about the policies that have been established to prevent non-compliance with laws and regulations by officers and employees.
- The Company operates in the insurance industry which is a highly regulated environment. As such the Senior Statutory Auditor considered the experience and expertise of the engagement team to ensure that the team had the appropriate competence and capabilities, which included the use of specialists where appropriate.

Our audit procedures included:

- Agreement of the financial statement disclosures to the underlying supporting documentation;
- Enquiries of management and review of minutes of Board and management meetings throughout the period;
- Understanding Companies policies and procedures in monitoring compliance with laws and regulations;
- Reviewing syndicates accounts, syndicates auditor questionnaires for evidence of financial statements of syndicates.
- Reviewing the audited financial statements relating to the syndicate, the Company has participated in.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the Company's Members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Company's Members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone, other than the Company and the Company's Members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

GIC RE, INDIA, CORPORATE MEMBER LIMITED*Notes to the Annual Accounts*At 31 December 2024*(1) General Information

GIC Re, India, Corporate Member Limited ("the Company") is a limited company incorporated in the United Kingdom. The address of its registered office is 40 Lime Street, 3rd Floor, London, EC3M 7AW. The nature of the Company's operations and its principal activities are set out in the Strategic report on page 2.

These financial statements have been presented in GBP as this is the Company's functional currency, being the primary economic environment in which the Company operates.

(2) Basis of Preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable United Kingdom accounting standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 – 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' ('FRS 102'), Financial Reporting Standard 103 – 'Insurance Contracts' ('FRS 103') and with the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for financial assets that are measured at fair value.

The Company's functional currency is GBP.

The Directors, based on their assessment of the Company's financial position and after making appropriate enquiries, reasonably expect that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, these annual accounts are prepared on a going concern basis.

(3) Basis of Accounting for Underwriting Activities

The Company underwrites insurance business on an underwriting year basis through its participation on Lloyd's Syndicate 1955, Syndicate 5183, Syndicate 2454, Syndicate 1609 and Syndicate 1947 (the Syndicates) under agency agreements with the Syndicates; each underwriting year is a separate annual venture. Agency agreements grant underwriting control to the Managing Agent of the Syndicates, and the Company has no access to funds controlled by the Syndicates. The Syndicates release funds to the Company from the Syndicate Premium Trust Funds when underwriting years close (normally after three calendar years). The Managing Agent assesses the result and net assets for each underwriting year based on the insurance policies incepting in that year for the membership of that year. The Syndicates may also release funds early on open underwriting years if the Managing Agent can determine the ultimate profitability of the year with enough accuracy (generally at the end of two calendar years).

The Company reports its share of Syndicate underwriting transactions, investment return, and operating expenses in its profit and loss account, and its share of the Syndicate assets and liabilities on its balance sheet. The Directors calculate these shares based on the Company's participation in the Syndicates as a percentage of each Syndicate's total insurance capacity.

The Syndicates hold assets subject to trust deeds for the benefit of the Company's insurance creditors.

(4) Accounting Policies

The Directors consistently applied the material accounting policies below in preparing these annual accounts.

(a) Gross Premiums Written

Gross premiums written consist of the Company's share of premiums on insurance contracts that each Syndicate bound during the year, together with any adjustments arising in the year to such premiums receivable in respect of business written in prior years. The Company shows premiums gross of commissions payable to intermediaries and excludes taxes and fees levied on them.

(b) Outward Reinsurance Premiums

Outward reinsurance premiums consist of (a) the Company's share of Syndicate reinsurance premiums on the outward reinsurance contract bound during the period and (b) the Company's reinsurance premiums on the outward reinsurance contracts that it has with its Parent reinsurer to proportionally reinsure all of its underwriting business from the Syndicates. Reinsurance transactions do not relieve the Company of its primary obligations to its policyholders.

The Company offsets actual or estimated assets and liabilities under the outward reinsurance contract with its Parent reinsurer that proportionately reinsures all its underwriting business from the Syndicates into single net balances, because they do not represent separate assets and liabilities.

(c) Provision for Unearned Premiums

Unearned premiums represent the proportion of premiums written in the year that relate to the unexpired terms of policies in force at the Balance Sheet date, calculated on the basis of established earnings patterns or time apportionment as appropriate.

(d) Provision for Unexpired Risks

At the balance sheet date, the Company makes a provision for unexpired risks where the value of claims and administrative expenses expected to arise after the balance sheet date from the insurance contracts entered into before the balance sheet date exceeds the provision for unearned premiums, the amount of premiums receivable under those contracts, after the deduction of any deferred acquisition costs.

No provision for unexpired risks was recorded in 2023 and 2024.

(e) Closed Years of Account

At the end of the third calendar year that an underwriting year is open, the year normally closes by way of reinsurance into the following open underwriting year. The Managing Agents determine the amount of the reinsurance to close premium payable, generally by estimating the cost of claims notified but not settled at 31 December, together with the estimated cost of claims incurred but not reported at that date, and an estimate of future claims handling expenses. The open underwriting year into which the closed underwriting year is reinsured bears the risk of any subsequent variation in the ultimate liabilities of the closed year.

The payment of a reinsurance to close premium does not relieve the closed year from its primary obligations for outstanding claims. If the reinsuring syndicate is unable to meet its obligations and the other elements of Lloyd's chain of security failed, then the closed underwriting year would have to settle the outstanding claims. The Directors consider the likelihood of such a reinsurance to close failure to be remote and therefore deem reinsurance to close as settlement of the liabilities outstanding at the closure of an underwriting year. The Company includes its share of the reinsurance to close premiums payable in its technical provisions at the balance sheet date, and the Company makes no further provision for any potential risk of variation in the ultimate liability of closed years.

(f) Run - Off Years of Account

If an underwriting year is not closed at the end of the third calendar year that it is open (a "run-off" year), the Company makes a provision for the estimated cost of all known and unknown outstanding liabilities of that year. The Managing Agent first determines the provision on a similar basis to the reinsurance to close. The Company, however, determines any subsequent variation in the ultimate liabilities for that year. Therefore, the Company will continue to report movements in its results from any run-off year after the third calendar year until it secures reinsurance to close.

The Company had no run-off years at 31 December 2024.

(g) Claims Incurred, Net of Reinsurance

Gross claims incurred consist of the estimated cost of settling all claims occurring during the period, whether reported or not, including related claims handling expenses. The Company anticipates subrogation recoveries when it sets provisions for reported claims. The Company accounts for reinsurance recoveries when it incurs the related losses.

The provision for claims outstanding includes the estimated cost of claims incurred but not reported ('IBNR') at the balance sheet date. A variety of estimation techniques are used generally based upon statistical analyses of historical experience and includes adjustments for catastrophes and other significant events, changes in historical trends, economic and social conditions, judicial decisions, and legislation, as necessary. In evaluating the provision, the Directors use the findings of the Syndicate actuaries, which include an associated third-party claims administrator's loss estimates for large catastrophes.

Large claims impacting each relevant business class are generally assessed separately, being measured on a case-by-case basis or projected separately in order to allow for the possible distorting effect of the development and incidence of these large claims.

Due to the Syndicates' limited history and small population of insured and reinsured claims, the provision for claims outstanding is subject to significant variability. While the Directors believe that the recorded provision for gross claims and reinsurance recoveries is adequate, establishing this liability is a judgmental and inherently uncertain process. Therefore, it is possible that actual losses may not conform to the assumptions that have been used in determining the amount of this provision. Accordingly, the ultimate provision may be significantly greater or less than the outstanding amount held at the balance sheet date. The Company recognises adjustments to the provision for claims outstanding in the profit and loss account when known. Due to its inherent nature Claims IBNR may not be apparent to the insurer until many years after the event giving rise to the claim has happened. Classes of business where the IBNR proportion of the total reserve is high will typically display greater variations between initial estimates and final outcomes because of the greater degree of difficulty of estimating these reserves. Classes of business where claims are typically reported relatively quickly after the claim event tend to display lower levels of volatility.

The Directors base the reinsurers' share of the provision for claims outstanding on the provisions for reported claims and IBNR, net of estimated irrecoverable amounts from potential reinsurer insolvencies based on the type of balance and security ratings of the involved reinsurers.

(h) Acquisition Costs, Net of Reinsurance

Acquisition costs consist of the Company's share of Syndicate related cover holder and ceding commissions (on inward reinsurance acceptances) primarily related to the production of new and renewal business. The Company defers acquisition costs to the extent that they are attributable to unearned premiums at the balance sheet date and expenses them as it earns the underlying insurance contract premiums. The Company includes acquisition costs in net operating expenses. The Company defers recoveries of acquisition costs (ceding commissions) from outward reinsurers and includes them in accruals and deferred revenue. The Company earns ceding commissions as it expenses underlying reinsurance contract premiums and includes them in net operating expenses under reinsurance commissions and profit participation.

(i) Investments

Investments consist of the Company's share of the Syndicates' shares and other variable yield securities and debt securities and other fixed-income securities. The Company carries investments at current or market value.

(j) Investment Return

Investment return primarily consists of income from the Company's share of the Syndicates' investments, gains and losses on the realisation of investments, and movements in unrealised gains and losses on investments, net of investment management expenses. Income from investments consists of interest, which the Company recognises when earned. The Company bases realised gains and losses on investments on the difference between the sale proceeds and the cost of the investment. Movements in unrealised gains and losses on investments represent the difference between the carrying value of investments at the balance sheet date and the purchase price of investments in earlier accounting periods, after considering investment disposals. Investment management expenses consist of investment custodian and management fees.

The Company first records its investment return in the non-technical account. The Company then transfers this return to the general business technical account to reflect the investment return on funds supporting the Syndicates' underwriting business; no funds outside of those in the Syndicate support the Company's underwriting business.

(k) Net Operating Expenses

The Company recognises operating expenses when incurred. Operating expenses include acquisition costs and the change in deferred acquisition costs, administrative expenses, and reinsurance commissions and profit participation. Administrative expenses consist of:

- i. the Company's share of Syndicate operating costs,
- ii. Managing Agent fees and profit commissions,
- iii. Lloyd's membership costs, and
- iv. the reimbursement of administrative expenses from the Parent reinsurer that proportionately reinsures all the Company's underwriting business from the Syndicate.

The Company also includes its share of the Syndicates' brokerage sharing from reinsurance brokers that place reinsurance coverage for the Syndicate in administrative expenses. The Company recognises brokerage sharing as revenue when brokers place the reinsurance coverage.

Reinsurance commissions and profit participation consist of (a) the Company's share of the Syndicates' ceding and contingent profit commissions from outward reinsurers and (b) the recovery of acquisition costs from the Parent reinsurer that proportionately reinsures all of the Company's underwriting business from the Syndicate.

(l) Current Taxation

The Company makes a provision for current U.K. taxes based on its taxable result for the period after considering permanent and timing differences between the treatment of certain items for book and tax. The Company also makes a provision for current U.S. federal tax where due based on U.S. taxable income for the period.

(m) Deferred Taxation

The Company makes a full provision for deferred taxation on timing differences that result in an obligation at the balance sheet date to pay more tax, or a right to pay less tax, at a future date, at rates expected to apply when these items reverse based on current tax rates and law. Timing differences arise from the inclusion of items of income and expenditure in taxation computations in periods different from those in which they are included in the annual accounts. The Company recognises deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered. The Company does not discount deferred tax assets and liabilities.

(n) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's functional and reporting currency is GBP. The Company measures foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities at the closing exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date are maintained at the rate of exchange ruling when the contract was entered into except for non-monetary assets and liabilities arising out of insurance contracts which are treated as monetary items in accordance with FRS 103 Insurance Contracts ("FRS 103"). Foreign currency revenues and expenses are measured at the historical exchange rates in effect at the time of the related transactions.

(o) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In applying the Company's accounting policies, the Directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions in determining the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities. The Directors' judgements, estimates and assumptions are based on the best and most reliable evidence available at the time when the decisions are made and are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be applicable. Due to the inherent subjectivity involved in making such judgements, estimates and assumptions, the actual results and outcomes may differ. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis.

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised, if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods, if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The management and control of each Syndicate the Company participates on is carried out by the managing agent of that Syndicate, and the Company looks to the managing agent to implement appropriate policies, procedures and internal controls to manage each Syndicate. The critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty set out below therefore relate to those made by the Directors in respect of the Company only, and do not include estimates and judgements made in respect of the Syndicates.

The critical judgements that the Directors have made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the statutory financial statements are discussed below.

Assessing indicators of impairment

In assessing whether there have been any indicators of impairment assets, the Syndicates have considered both external and internal sources of information such as market conditions, counterparty credit ratings and experience of recoverability. There have been no indicators of impairments identified during the current financial year.

(4) Accounting Policies (Continued)*(o) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty (Continued)*Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Recoverability of receivables

The Company establishes a provision for receivables that are estimated not to be recoverable. When assessing recoverability, the Directors consider factors such as the aging of the receivables, past experience of recoverability, and the credit profile of individual or groups of customers. No provisions have been recognised at the year end.

(5) Management of Financial Risk

The Company is exposed to the following financial risks in the course of its operating and financing activities:

- Credit risk
- Liquidity risk; and
- Foreign exchange risk

The management and control of each Syndicate is carried out by the managing agent of that Syndicate, and the Company looks to the managing agent to implement appropriate policies, procedures and internal controls to manage each Syndicate, including those in respect of financial risk management. The following qualitative risk management disclosures made by the Directors relate to the Corporate activity only. The quantitative disclosures are made in respect of both the Corporate and the Syndicates.

(5) Management of Financial Risk (Continued)*Credit risks

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty to the Company's financial instruments will cause a loss to the Company through failure to perform its obligations. The key areas of exposure to credit risk for the Company result through its reinsurance programme, investments and bank deposits.

The risk of default by the Parent Reinsurer is mitigated by a £24.2m letter of credit and funds of £203.9m provided by the Parent to Lloyd's (Funds at Lloyd's) to collateralise its reinsurance obligations to the Company.

The Company manages credit risk at the Corporate level by ensuring that investments and cash and cash equivalent deposits are placed only with highly rated credit institutions. The carrying amount of the Company's financial assets represents the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk.

The tables below show the credit quality of financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Company is exposed to the risk of interest rate fluctuations in respect of cash and cash equivalents.

The table below shows the impact of changes in interest rates on the profit or loss for the period and on the equity of the

The Company has delegated sole management and control of its underwriting through each Syndicate to the managing agent of the Syndicate and it has further undertaken not to interfere with the exercise of such management and control. The managing agents of the Syndicates are therefore responsible for determining the insurance transactions to be recognised. As such, disclosures in respect of the assumptions and judgements made, and the objectives, policies and processes for managing currency risk arising from assets and liabilities are only presented for the Corporate in these financial statements.

The OECD's Pillar Two Model rules introduce a global system of interlocking top-up taxes that aim to ensure that large multinational groups pay a minimum amount of income tax. The amendments to FRS 102 published on 11 July 2023 introduce a temporary exception to the accounting for deferred taxes arising from the implementation of the OECD's Pillar Two model rules. The Company has taken advantage of this exception. The UK has enacted legislation which has effect for UK entities within a Pillar 2 group from periods beginning after 31 December 2023. Any top-up tax is disclosed separately in the current tax line for this period and is nil for the Company in the period ended 31 December 2024.

The investments held at 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2023 are carried at fair value through profit and loss and have been categorised between the three levels of the fair value hierarchy that reflects the observability and significance of inputs used when establishing the fair value.

Level 1

Inputs to Level 1 fair values are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets. An active market is one in which transactions for the asset occurs with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an on-going basis. Examples are listed debt securities in active markets or listed equities in active markets or listed deposits held with credit institutions in active markets.

Level 2

Inputs to Level 2 fair values are inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar (i.e. not identical) assets in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets in markets that are not active or in which little information is released publicly, unlisted deposits held with credit institutions in active markets, low volatility hedge funds where tradable net asset values are published.

Level 3

Inputs to Level 3 fair values are inputs that are unobservable for the asset. Unobservable inputs have been used to measure fair value where observable inputs are not available, allowing for situations where there is little or no market activity. Unobservable inputs reflect assumptions that the Society considers that market participants would use in pricing the asset and have been based on a combination of independent third party evidence and internally developed models.

| Estimation of non-life insurance reserves and reinsurers' share in such reserves is one of the most significant matters for our audit given the materiality of these reserves for the annual financial statements, complexity and subjectivity of estimates based on management's assumptions and judgments, and significant fluctuations of the estimations result depending on the assumptions used. Loss reserves largely depend on the assumptions used. Loss reserves are calculated using actuarial techniques based on historical data on losses and their characteristics, and the ultimate total loss is defined based on assumptions. Non-life insurance reserves and reinsurers' share in such reserves are disclosed in Note 15 to the annual financial statements. | Our audit procedures included assessment of the assumptions and the methodology used by management for estimating non-life insurance reserves, performed with the involvement of our actuaries. We have verified the completeness, integrity and sources of data used to calculate non-life insurance reserves and reinsurers' share in such reserves. For these purposes, we used the results of audit procedures in respect of processes and accounting areas related to the recognition of insurance and reinsurance premiums, acquisition costs, loss adjustment expenses and other related accounts. We reviewed a sample of documents with regard to certain insurance losses in the outstanding claims reserve and reinsurers' share in such reserve. We checked the mathematical accuracy of the formulas used and whether they are in line with accepted methodology used to estimate non-life insurance reserves. We analyzed the methodology and assumptions used by the Insurance Company in the course of the liability adequacy testing, and reviewed liability adequacy calculations. |

Responsibilities of management and the Board of Directors for the annual financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the annual financial statements in accordance with the rules on preparation of financial statements established in the Russian Federation and IFRS, adopted for mandatory application in the Russian Federation, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of annual financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the annual financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability of the Insurance Company to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Insurance Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing the Insurance Company's annual financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the annual financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the annual financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these annual financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISA, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the annual financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- ▶ Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Insurance Company's internal control.
- ▶ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- ▶ Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Insurance Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the annual financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Insurance Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- ▶ Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the annual financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the annual financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the Board of Directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

From the matters communicated with the Board of Directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of annual financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication

| Key factors affecting financial performance. Changes in operating environment of the insurer and response to them | 1        | IAS 1 | In 2024, the geopolitical situation and macro- and microeconomic and structural changes of the economy and its segments remained the key factors affecting the economic situation. At the same time, their impact on the insurance and reinsurance markets, as usual, turned out to be indirect and not so significant in quantitative terms. In 2024, the Russian reinsurance market continued its development in the form in which it was formed in 2022-2023. in the new reality: reliance on the internal reinsurance capacity with the absolute dominance of JSC Russian National Reinsurance Company (RNPC) and regulatory changes (Regulation 781-P and the active stage of completion of preparations for the transition to IFRS 17 from 01.01.2025). The key overall macroeconomic factor that influenced the financial sector, including the reinsurance market, was the progressive increase in the key rate of the Bank of Russia throughout 2024. The Company continues to assess the effect of these circumstances and changes in micro- and macroeconomic conditions on its business, financial position and financial performance. Management believes that the Company has all the necessary resources to ensure sustainability of its operations and is taking all necessary measures to adapt its business to changes in the operating environment.. |

| Effect of estimates and assumptions on recognized assets and liabilities (specify the items of financial statements, which amounts are most significantly affected by professional estimates and assumptions and provide comments on how the professional judgments affect the assessment of these items) | 2        | IAS 1  | Judgments that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements and estimates that can cause a significant adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial period, include the following: 1. Estimation of insurance contract liabilities. All contracts are subject to a liability adequacy test, which reflects management's best current estimate of future cash flows. 2. Change in loss reserves. The financial statements reflect insurance reserves that were measured in accordance with the best estimate principle. 3. Tax law. Russian tax legislation is subject to varying interpretations. Given complexity of the Russian tax legislation, determining the amount of income tax liabilities is to some extent a matter of judgment. Certain judgments made by the Company's management in determining the tax amount may be challenged by tax authorities. The Company recognizes tax liabilities that can arise following tax audits based on the estimation of contingent tax liabilities. As at December 31, 2024, management believes that its interpretation of the relevant legislation is appropriate and that the Company's tax position will be sustained.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

When determining the amount of insurance reserves in accordance with the best estimate principle, the Company assumes that: 1. Future expenses arising from all concluded reinsurance contracts include payments upon occurrence of insured events, business expenses, expenses for claim settlement, expenses related to contract termination, and other expenses; 2. Future income arising from all concluded contracts include insurance premiums and other income; 3. The best estimate of insurance reserves is recorded without taking into account the impact of reinsurance operations and other operations related to insurance activities that compensate the insurer's expenses, such as income from subrogation and recourse claims, as well as income from receipt of insured property and/or salvage. The Company recognizes insurance reserves in the financial statements in the amount not less than the best estimate. The key actuarial assumptions used in measuring liabilities under non-life insurance contracts are as follows: 1. Unearned premium reserve under inward reinsurance contracts for all reserve groups is calculated based on the assumption that an insured event can occur at any time during validity period of a reinsurance contract/risk bearing period; 2. Since the amount of each loss under inward reinsurance contract payable at the reporting date is determined by Company's employees on the basis of the loss information available at the reporting date, it is not necessary to apply any assumptions; 3. The Company applies the Bornhuetter-Ferguson method to payment development triangles for valuation of the reserve of incurred but not reported losses, 4. The estimate was based on the actual data on the Company's expenses related to the consideration of claimed losses, their settlement and determination of the amount of payments under the contracts for the year preceding the reporting date. To calculate the reserve for loss adjustment expenses for direct and indirect expenses, the assumption was applied that for losses unsettled at the reporting date, the cost of settlement per unit of loss would be equal on average to the ratio of adjustment expenses incurred to payments for the reporting periods preceding the reporting date; 5. Unexpired risk reserve is made if unearned premiums are insufficient to cover the Company's liabilities related to payments on future claims, expenses on settlement of these claims and future expenses on servicing existing insurance contracts. In general, the necessity to make the unexpired risk reserve was analyzed based on the assumption that the Company will not discontinue its operations during the next reporting period. The amount of unexpired risk reserve is estimated based on previous experience, assumptions about loss ratios (including loss adjustment expenses) and the level of expenses for managing the current portfolio. The amount of reserve is determined by reviewing the adequacy of the unexpired risk reserve estimate for the Company as a whole. |

The fair value is measured in accordance with IFRS 13 Fair Value Measurement.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Revaluation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies | 6        | IAS 21                 | The functional currency of the Company is the national currency of the Russian Federation, the Russian ruble. Upon initial recognition, income and expenses, as well as assets and liabilities arising from transactions in foreign currencies, are translated in the ruble equivalent of the corresponding foreign currency at the official exchange rate at the date of recognition. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not restated after initial recognition. The Company plans to start applying IFRS 17 in accounting (financial) statements for the reporting periods beginning on January 1, 2025. The adoption of IFRS 17 and Industry Standards based on the application of the requirements of IFRS 17 (collectively, "IFRS 17") is expected to have an impact on Company's accounting (financial) statements as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Since the requirements of IFRS 17 for the classification of insurance contracts generally correspond to those of IFRS 4, the Company does not expect that the application of IFRS 17 will affect the classification of contracts.</li> </ul> |

|                         |          |      | - Instead of the unearned premium reserve, the Company will recognize a liability for remaining coverage (LRC), and instead of loss reserves, a liability for incurred claims (LIC). The measurement of LIC will differ from the measurement of loss reserves because the estimation of future cash flows for incurred claims will be adjusted for the time value of money and increased by a risk adjustment for non-financial risk. - Deferred acquisition costs and accounts receivable under reinsurance contracts will be included in the measurement of liabilities under reinsurance contracts, while accounts payable under reinsurance contracts will be included in the measurement of assets for reinsurance held. This change in presentation will lead to a reduction in the balance sheet totals. - In the statement of financial performance, information on the amount of premiums under concluded reinsurance contracts will not be presented. Instead of the indicators of earned premiums and incurred losses, insurance service revenue and insurance service expenses will be reflected, respectively. - Financial income and expenses under reinsurance contracts, including the impact of changes in exchange rates and interest expenses, will be presented in a separate line item and will not be included in the insurance service result. This change in presentation will lead to a modification of the insurance result indicator and the ratios calculated based on it. The Company plans to apply IFRS 17 by recognizing the cumulative effect of the transition in retained earnings as of January 1, 2024, and to restate comparative information for 2024. Currently, the Company is in the process of agreeing on the quantitative assessment of the effect of applying IFRS 17; therefore, a reasonable estimate is not available. Simultaneously with the commencement of IFRS 17 application, the Company plans to apply IFRS 9 and industry standards based on the requirements of IFRS 9 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "IFRS 9"). It is expected that the application of IFRS 9 will not have a significant impact on the Company's accounting (financial) statements. Amendments to IAS 1 applicable for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023, with the possibility of early application. Since the amendments to Practical Recommendations No. 2 on the Application of IFRS do not provide mandatory guidance on the application of the definition of materiality to information on accounting policies, there is no mandatory effective date for these amendments. The Company is currently assessing the impact of these amendments, which they may have on the disclosure of information about the Company's accounting policies. Amendments to IAS 1 .Classification of Liabilities as Current and Non-current. In January 2020, the IASB issued amendments to paragraphs 69-76 of IAS 1 to specify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. In June 2022, |

|                         |          |      | the IASB decided to finalize the proposed amendments to IAS 1 published in an exposure draft Non-current Liabilities with Covenants with some modifications (the 2022 Amendments). The amendments clarify: 1. What is meant by the right to defer settlement of liabilities; 2. That the right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period; 3. That classification is unaffected by the likelihood that an entity will exercise its deferral right; 4. That only if an embedded derivative in a convertible liability is itself an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification; 5. That the entity that classifies liabilities arising from loan agreements as long-term is required to disclose additional information, when it has the right to defer the settlement of liabilities that should be complied with by the entity as future covenants within 12 months. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2024. Amendments to IFRS 16 Leases. On September 22, 2022, the IASB issued amendments to IFRS 16 Leases by adding guidance on the subsequent measurement of assets and liabilities under a sale and leaseback that meets the criteria of transferring control over an asset under IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The amendments require a seller-lessee to measure the lease liability arising from a leaseback in a way that it does not recognize any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains. Entities should use IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors to develop an accounting policy for determining how to measure lease payments for such transactions. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively in accordance with IAS 8 to sale and leaseback transactions entered into after the date of initial application of the amendments. A seller-lessee shall apply the amendments for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024, with earlier application permitted. Amendments to IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows and IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures In May 2023, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows and IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures that clarify the characteristics of supplier finance arrangements and require additional disclosures for such arrangements. The disclosure requirements in the amendments aim to assist users of financial statements in understanding the impact of supplier finance arrangements on an entity's liabilities, cash flows and exposure to liquidity risk. Transitional provisions in the amendments state that entities do not have to disclose certain comparative information for any reporting periods presented before the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies those amendments, and certain information as of the beginning of the year otherwise required to be disclosed as of the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies those amendments. |

| Initial and subsequent recognition of other assets                                                            | 17       | IAS 1                                   | Other assets include inventories, means and subjects of labor received under compensation and collateral agreements without a specified purpose, property and/or salvage recoveries received through a waiver of the policyholder (beneficiary) of the title to the insured property. Subjects of labor received under compensation and collateral agreements without a specified purpose should be measured at the lower of cost at the date of recognition and the estimated price at which the items can be sold less costs to sell (at net realizable value) at the end of each reporting year. Upon initial recognition of property items and/or salvage recoveries received through a waiver of the policyholder (beneficiary) of the title to the insured property (hereinafter, property and/or salvage recoveries), they are measured at the estimated price at which the items can be sold, less costs to sell (net realizable value). Upon initial recognition, the amount of funds, issued (placed) under a loan or a bank deposit agreement valid for more than one year, is determined by discounting future cash flows using the effective interest rate. After initial recognition, funds issued (placed) under a loan or a bank deposit agreement are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Amortized cost is the amount at which the financial instrument was recognized at initial recognition less any principal repayments, plus/(less) accrued interest, less any write-down for incurred impairment losses (directly or through the allowance account). The Company calculates the amortized cost at least once a quarter at the last day of the reporting period. |

| Insurance activities. Recognition, classification of insurance contracts                                                                         | 26       | IFRS 4 | Reinsurance contracts are contracts under which the Company accepts significant insurance risk from the reinsurer by agreeing to compensate if a specified uncertain future event (an insured event) adversely affects the reinsurer. For accounting purposes, a reinsurance contract is classified as short-term if its term or risk does not exceed 12 months, or there is a contractual option of changing the insurance premium rate or liability limit under certain circumstances. Other contracts are classified as long-term. The Company is engaged in both optional and obligatory reinsurance activities. The date of recognition of income under a contract accepted for reinsurance is based on a specific reinsurance contract. Recognition of insurance premiums under contracts accepted for reinsurance depends on whether the reinsurance is optional or obligatory, proportional or non-proportional and whether the contract is short-term or long-term. Premiums under optional contracts accepted for reinsurance are recognized on the date when the liability under the reinsurance contract arises (the beginning of the reinsurance period). If the liability start date is open and indicated on a reinsurance slip or another document, then the premium is recognized as at the date of acceptance of such a document. If the reinsurer's contractual liability start date is before the date of acceptance, then the premium is recognized as at the date of acceptance. For obligatory agreements, the recognition date is the contractual liability start date (if it is determined) or the date of acceptance of the reinsurer's account (bordereau), respectively. The Company cedes to reinsurance (retrocession) contracts, the liabilities under which exceed the maximum amounts (limits) of own retention established by the internal policy on reinsurance, approved by the Order of the General Director, taking into account the requirements of Law No. 4015-1 of the Russian Federation On Organization of Insurance Business in the Russian Federation, dated November 27, 1992. The Company's recognition of contracts ceded to reinsurance depends on whether they transfer significant insurance risk. A reinsurance contract transfers significant insurance risk if the reinsurer may incur a significant loss under such contracts. |

| Recognition, derecognition, amortization of deferred acquisition income and costs. Recognition of deferred acquisition costs during the liability adequacy testing | 27       | IFRS 4 | Direct acquisition costs under reinsurance contracts are recognized when there are contractual relationships with intermediaries or other circumstances giving rise to obligations to pay a consideration, and also if the amount of the consideration can be measured reliably. The date of recognition of direct acquisition costs under reinsurance contracts corresponds to the date of recognition of the insurance premium under the respective reinsurance contracts. The Company recognizes income in the form of a reinsurance commission to be received from the reinsurer as acquisition income under contracts ceded to reinsurance. The Company recognizes income in the form of a reinsurance commission under contracts ceded to reinsurance as at the date of recognition of the insurance premium under the contract ceded to reinsurance. The Company capitalizes direct acquisition costs (income) related to remuneration to insurance brokers and other intermediaries. Deferred acquisition costs are determined using the pro rata temporis method. Deferred acquisition income under outbound reinsurance contracts is defined in a similar way. If the terms and conditions of contracts under which acquisition costs were previously capitalized are changed, the amount of deferred acquisition costs is also revised. Indirect acquisition costs and income are not capitalized. The Company approved the procedure for adequacy testing of the reinsurer's liabilities in the Regulation on the formation of insurance reserves. |
| Initial recognition, subsequent recognition, impairment testing, derecognition of receivables from insurance, co-insurance and reinsurance                         | 28       | IFRS 4 | Receivables under reinsurance contracts represent amounts due from the reinsurer or broker: insurance premiums receivable, subrogations and recourse claims receivable and insurance payments due from reinsurers. After initial recognition, the amount of receivables is reduced by cash received from counterparties to repay the amounts due in correspondence with cash accounts; an amount offset against the Company's payables to the counterparty under an agreement, bordereau or offset agreement; bad debt written off against the allowance for impairment. Offsetting assets and liabilities under different reinsurance contracts, as well as within one reinsurance contract between different reinsurers and/or types of settlements, is not allowed, except for cases when the Company has a right for such an offset in accordance with the contract, agreement between the parties, or law. The Company tests receivables from reinsurance operations for impairment. Impairment losses are recognized through an allowance account to write down the asset's carrying amount to the present value of expected cash flows (which exclude future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the original effective interest rate for the asset. Uncollectible assets are written off against the allowance for impairment, after all the necessary procedures for full or partial recovery have been completed and the ultimate loss amount has been determined.                                                              |

| Recognition, subsequent recognition, derecognition of payables arising from insurance, co-insurance and reinsurance                                                       | 29       | IFRS 4, IAS 39 | Reinsurance payables include settlements with brokers and reinsurers, as well as settlements under subrogations and recourse claims. Payables are carried at amortized cost and are recognized on an accrual basis. Reinsurance receivables and payables are offset for the same counterparty if there is a legally enforceable right to offset.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

| Recognition, classification, measurement, subsequent recognition for impairment testing, derecognition of liabilities under non-life insurance contracts                  | 31       | IFRS 4         | The Company forms the following types of reserves under insurance contracts. The unearned premium reserve is a part of gross premiums that will be earned in subsequent reporting periods. The unearned premium reserve is calculated separately for each insurance contract on a pro-rata basis. The unearned premium reserve is recorded net of estimated terminations of insurance contracts effective as at the reporting date. Movements in the unearned premium reserve are recognized in profit or loss for the covered period. Provisions for claims comprise provisions in the amount expected to be required to fully settle claims outstanding as at the reporting date, whether reported or not, and provisions for related external loss adjustment expenses. Provisions for claims (outstanding claim reserve, provision for claims incurred but not reported, provision for claim adjustment expenses) are estimated by analyzing reported individual claims and by creating a provision for claims incurred but not reported, taking into consideration the effect of projected external and internal future events, such as movements in external loss adjustment expenses, regulatory changes, prior years' experience, and established trends. As at the reporting date, the Company creates a provision for the estimated amount required to fully settle claims resulting from insured events up until that date irrespective of whether those claims had been reported, including the amount of respective external loss adjustment expenses, net of amounts already paid. The provision is not discounted for the time value of money. The unexpired risk provision is an estimated amount of claims and costs that will arise from unexpired policies. The provision is made in respect of unexpired risk that arises in connection with insurance contracts, where the estimated amount of insurance payments and loss adjustment expenses during the remaining term of insurance policies existing as at the reporting date is higher than the amount of the provision for unearned premiums related to such policies net of all deferred acquisition costs. The unexpired risk provision is calculated based on historical data, projected loss rates (including loss adjustment expenses), and costs related to serving the existing insurance portfolio. Insurance claim payments are estimated in view of events that have occurred prior to the reporting date. Key assumptions used in the adequacy testing of liabilities are described in Line No. 4 of this section of this table. |

Assets that arise from the reinsurance transactions represent an amount of claims for reimbursement from reinsurance companies in respect of the insurance liabilities ceded to reinsurance. Reimbursements are measured in accordance with the terms of the reinsurance contracts using methods that are consistent with those for measuring insurance contract liabilities. Reinsurance assets are tested for impairment at each reporting date. The procedure for identifying impairment indicators and measuring impairment of reinsurance assets is similar to that used for identifying impairment indicators and measuring impairment of insurance receivables. Impairment of reinsurance assets in the form of the reinsurer's share in insurance reserves directly affect its calculations.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

If the liability start date under a reinsurance contract is earlier than the date of its acceptance, the date of income recognition is deemed the date of acceptance. Premiums under obligatory contracts (treaties) are recognized as follows: for proportional contracts accepted for reinsurance on an obligatory basis, a premium is recognized at the date of acceptance of the premium bordereau (invoice) in the amount specified in the premium bordereau (invoice) received from the reinsurer. Premiums under facultative reinsurance contracts are recognized at the inception of liability under insurance contracts and are earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the non-proportional reinsurance contracts. The premiums are recognized as income and accrued as follows: the minimum deposit premium is recognized as income at the commencement of the reinsurance contract in the amount specified in the reinsurance contract. Acquisition costs are classified as direct or indirect. Direct costs are variable costs incurred by a reinsurer when entering into or renewing specific reinsurance contracts. The Company includes to indirect costs variable costs that are aimed at concluding insurance contracts, while it is difficult to allocate them to specific reinsurance contracts, but they relate to sales promotion or incentives, and the relationship between such costs and the insurance premium growth may be determined. Costs in the form of remuneration to insurance brokers and reinsurance commission under reinsurance contracts are recognized as at the date when the insurance premium is recognized for the contract accepted for reinsurance. Other direct acquisition costs are recognized based on supporting documents, as the respective services are rendered. |

The Company's intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over their expected useful lives. Amortization of intangible assets starts from the date when the asset becomes available for use and ceases at the earlier of the date when the intangible asset is reclassified to non-current assets held for sale and the date when the asset is derecognized. Amortization is not suspended during the asset's useful life. The useful life of an intangible asset may not exceed the Company's operating life (licenses – 1-5 years; software – 3-5 years; website – 1-10 years; other – 5 years). | Recognition of in-house costs to produce intangible assets | 51       | IAS 1 | The process of intangible asset production comprises two stages: research and development. Research includes original and planned research undertaken by the Company in order to obtain new scientific or technical knowledge. The costs incurred by the Company at the research stage when creating intangible assets are recognized as expenses as incurred. The Company considers development as the application of research results and other knowledge to the planning or design of the production of new or substantially improved devices, products, processes, systems or services prior to their use. The costs incurred by the Company at the development stage of an intangible asset are subject to recognition as part of the cost of the intangible asset if the following conditions are met: 1. The Company intends to complete the creation of an intangible asset and use it in its activities; 2. The intangible asset will generate future economic benefits; 3. The Company has resources (technical, financial, other) to complete the development and use the intangible asset; 4. The Company can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the creation of an intangible asset; 5. The Company is able to measure reliably the costs attributable to the intangible asset in the process of its development. If the Company cannot separate the research stage from the development stage when carrying out work aimed at creating an intangible asset, then the costs incurred are recognized as costs incurred at the research stage. Costs initially recognized by the Company as expenses are not subsequently recognized in the cost of an intangible asset. | Recognition of expenses on payroll accrual, including reimbursements and incentives, vacation payments, temporary disability benefits, child care benefits, year-end bonuses and severance payments | 52       | IAS 1, IAS 19 | Salary expenses, contributions to the State Pension Fund and the Social Insurance Fund, paid annual vacations, temporary disability benefits and other payments are accrued as the work is performed (the relevant services are rendered) by the Company's employees. Salaries paid in advance are recognized at the dates specified in the employment contract. Monthly salaries are recognized at the last date of the reporting month. Vacation days pertaining to the next month following the settlement month are accrued in the month when payment obligations arise. Accumulated vacations are determined as the amount of expected costs to be paid to an employee for paid vacations unused at the end of the annual reporting period. All adjustments (changes) to previously recognized obligations to pay remuneration and contributions to extra-budgetary funds are recognized on the last day of the reporting month. Thus, all adjustments related to the advance payment are adjusted at the last day of the settlement month. All adjustments related to the accrual at the end of the month are adjusted in the next settlement month. The Company recognizes liabilities to pay bonuses, including those based on the results for the reporting year, if: 1. The Company has a liability to pay bonuses based on the requirements of local regulations and other internal documents, terms of labor and/or collective agreements; 2. The amount of liabilities to pay bonuses, including those based on the results for the year, can be reliably measured. The procedure for measuring liabilities to pay bonuses is determined by local regulations and other internal documents of the Company, terms of labor and/or collective agreements. |

| Initial and subsequent recognition of provisions                       | 57       | IAS 37, IAS 1 | Provisions recognized as liabilities representing existing liabilities arising from past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle them (assuming a reliable estimate can be made). The Company recognizes provisions when all of the following conditions are met: 1. The Company has an obligation (arising from an agreement, the requirements of the Russian law or another applicable law, another legal framework, or due to the Company's actions (including the published policy, statements and other similar actions) demonstrating the acceptance of obligations and creating reasonable expectations among other parties that it will fulfill them), arising as a result of a past event (one or more); 2. It is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; 3. It is possible to provide a reliable estimate of the obligation. If these conditions are not met, then the provision is not recognized. When determining the amount of the provision, which is the best estimate of the expenditures required to settle the present obligation (the amount that the Company would have to pay to settle the obligation or to transfer it to a third party at the end of the reporting period), the Company performs certain procedures (as follows) and considers the following: 1. Independently determines methods for assessing the expenditures depending on the circumstances and, if necessary, approves them within the standards of the entity; 2. Hypotheses regarding uncertainty and the estimate of expenditures require professional judgment made in accordance with IAS 37 (Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets); 3. If a large number of hypotheses are involved in estimating a provision, the estimate of the obligation is probability-weighted results of all possible hypotheses. If there is a continuous interval of possible outcomes and all points within this interval are equally probable, the average value of the specified interval is used; 4. Where the effect of the time value of money is material and provisions are discounted, the amount of the provision shall be the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The Company independently determines the criteria for the materiality of the effect of the time value of money and, if necessary, approves them within the standards of the entity; 5. Future events that may affect the amount required to settle the liability should be taken into account when determining the amount of the provision, if there is sufficient objective evidence that they will occur; 6. Other factors affecting the best estimate in accordance with IAS 37. Where the effect of the time value of money is material and provisions are discounted, the amount of the provision shall be the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are reviewed by the Company on a quarterly basis no later than the last day of the relevant quarter. |

| Initial and subsequent recognition and derecognition of lease liabilities | 58       | IFRS 16 | A right-of-use asset and a lease liability are recognized by the Company as lessee (hereinafter, the "lessee") at the commencement date of the lease. At the commencement date, the lessee measures a right-of-use asset at cost determined in accordance with paragraph 24 of IFRS 16. At the commencement date, the lessee measures a lease liability at the present value of lease payments. Lease payments are discounted based on the lease term and using the contractual interest rate. If the discount rate is not specified in the lease and the Company does not borrow funds, it sets the discount rate for calculating the present value of lease payments as equal to the interest rate on the Bank of Russia's loans secured by assets or guarantees published in the Statistics Bulletin of the Bank of Russia. At the commencement date, the lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise payments for the right to use the underlying asset determined in accordance with paragraphs 27 and 28 of IFRS 16 as follows: At the commencement date, the lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following payments for the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) Fixed payments less any lease incentive receivables;</li> <li>(b) Variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate at the commencement date depending on changes in market lease rates (refinancing rate);</li> <li>(c) Amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees;</li> <li>(d) The exercise price of the purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option;</li> <li>(e) Payment of penalties for terminating the lease if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.</li> </ul> The amount of initially measured lease liabilities is included in the cost of the right-of-use asset. Lease payments paid in advance prior to the commencement date of the lease are included in the cost of the right-of-use asset. Initial direct costs incurred by the lessee to enter into the lease are included in the cost of the right-of-use asset. After initial recognition, right-of-use assets relating to property and equipment are measured by applying a cost model less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. The lease liability is subsequently measured in accordance with paragraph 36 of IFRS 16. Not later than the last day of the month and on lease payment dates set in the lease agreement, interest expense is charged for the previous month or for the period from the date of the previous lease payment. From the commencement date of the lease, the lease liability is remeasured to reflect changes in lease payments in the event of a change in the lease term or a change in the option to purchase the underlying asset. The lessee recognizes the amount of remeasurement of the lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset (an increase in the carrying |

The lease liability is remeasured by the lessee by discounting the revised lease payments using the revised discount rate in any of the following cases: 1. A change in the lease term (revised lease payments are determined based on the revised lease term); 2. A change in the option to purchase the underlying asset (revised lease payments are determined to reflect the change in the amounts payable under the option to purchase the underlying asset). The revised discount rate is determined as the contractual interest rate over the remaining lease term, if that rate can be determined, or as the interest rate on the lessee's borrowings at the date of the revaluation, if the interest rate cannot be determined. If the discount rate is not specified in the lease and the Company does not borrow funds, it sets the discount rate for calculating the present value of lease payments as equal to the interest rate on the Bank of Russia's loans secured by assets or guarantees published in the Statistics Bulletin of the Bank of Russia. The lease liability is remeasured by the lessee by discounting the revised lease payments in any of the following cases: 1. A change in the amounts to be paid under the residual value guarantee under the lease (revised lease payments are determined to reflect changes in the amounts to be paid in the framework of the residual value guarantee); 2. A change in future lease payments as a result of changes in the index or rate used to determine those payments (the lease liability is revalued only if cash flows change). The lessee uses a constant discount rate, except where changes in lease payments are related to changes in the floating rates. |

| Initial and subsequent recognition and derecognition of payables                           | 59       | IAS 39         | Payables are carried at amortized cost and are recognized on an accrual basis. When reinsurance receivables are impaired, a write-off of the associated reinsurance liability (payables) may be recognized. Liabilities can only be written off on an individual basis, and the amount written off cannot exceed the amount of the impairment of the associated asset (receivables) for each individual pair. When insurance premium receivables under a reinsurance agreement are impaired, a proportional write-off may occur of a portion of payables related to these receivables, payable to an insurance intermediary under this reinsurance agreement. In this case, the same impairment percentage value may be applied to write off payables as is applied to associated impaired receivables.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Initial recognition, measurement, subsequent recognition and derecognition of deferred tax asset and deferred tax liability | 63       | IAS 12         | Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized as amounts that can decrease or, accordingly, increase the amount of income tax payable to the budget in future reporting periods. A deferred tax liability is the amount of income tax payable to the budget in future reporting periods in respect of taxable temporary differences. A deferred tax asset is the amount of income tax recoverable in future reporting periods in respect of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Deductible temporary differences;</li> <li>• Tax losses carried forward not used to reduce income tax.</li> </ul> Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable differences in the amount equal to the product of the amount of such differences and the income tax rate established by the Russian tax law which is in effect at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. A deferred tax asset equals the product of the amount of deductible temporary differences or tax losses carried forward and the income tax rate established by the Russian tax law which is in effect at the end of the reporting period. If the Company does not expect to receive sufficient taxable profit to use part or all of the deferred tax asset, such part or all of the calculated deferred tax asset shall not be recognized. Unrecognized deferred income tax assets should be reassessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered. |

| 1        | For implementation of insurance obligations for insured events which did not take place yet, but can happen in the future, Company forms at the expense of the accrued insurance premiums an unearned premium reserve (further, UPR). Thus, UPR is monetary assessment of obligations of Company which can arise in future after the reporting date until the insurance contract expire. Base for calculation of UPR were the insurance premiums expressed in contract currency under contracts of Inward reinsurance taking into account reduction or increase in insurance premiums in connection with change of conditions of contracts (gross written premium). Calculation of UPR was made in contract currency. In case the currency of the contract is other than rubles, the ruble equivalent of UPR turned out by multiplication of the created UPR in currency of the contract for a rate of the corresponding currency for reporting date. Calculation of a unearned premium reserve to contracts of insurance for 31.12.2024 is made by the "pro rata temporis" method. Not earned premium is determined by the "pro rata temporis" method by each contract as the work of the added insurance premium under the contract for the relation of the period of validity of reinsurance which did not expire for reporting date under the contract (in days) by all period of validity of reinsurance (in days). Share of Reinsurers in UPR and in the deferred acquisition income. As at the reporting date, the Company has had just one active quote-share outward retrocession contract (treaty) covering the full range of the Inward reinsurance business as written by Company. The share of the Reinsurer was calculated as the value of UPR under each Inward reinsurance contract multiplied by the share of the retrocessionaire according to conditions of this contract (97.5%). Same way, under each Inward reinsurance contract the deferred acquisition income by "pro rata temporis" method calculates from the original commissions, fronting commissions, profit commissions, No-claim-bonuses, brokerages, taxes and any other deductions provided by the contract of retrocession (6.75% of gross premium to retrocession). |

| 1        | Risk management is fundamental to the reinsurer's business and is an essential element of its operations. The reinsurer's management views risk management and control as an important aspect of its operations and operations management and continuously integrates these functions into the corporate structure. The main objective of risk management is to establish risk limits and ensure further compliance with these limits and other internal controls. Risk management is intended to ensure proper functioning of internal policies and procedures in order to minimize them. The reinsurer is exposed to the risk of losses resulting from inconsistency with the nature and scope of the reinsurer's business and/or non-compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation, internal practices and procedures for commercial and other transactions, their breaches by the reinsurer's employees and/or other persons (due to incompetence, inadvertent or deliberate action or omission to act), inadequate (insufficient) functionalities (characteristics) of the information, technological and other systems used by the reinsurer and/or their failures (malfunctions), and ensuing from external events (hereinafter, operational risk). When internal controls fail to perform, operational risk can cause damage to reputation, have legal consequences or lead to financial losses. The reinsurer cannot assume that operational risk has been eliminated, but the control framework and the system for tracking and responding to potential risks could be effective tools for the reinsurer to manage operational risk. The control framework provides for effective segregation of duties, access rights, authorization and reconciliation procedures, staff training and assessment procedures, including internal audit. The reinsurer manages risks related to operational activities (changes in the environment, technology and industry) through strategic planning. The reinsurer is exposed to the risk of losses resulting from non-compliance with regulatory legal acts and concluded agreements, legal errors in the course of operations, imperfection of the legal system (inconsistency of Russian laws, lack of regulations for certain issues arising in the course of the reinsurer's operations), counterparties' failure to comply with regulatory legal acts and the terms of concluded agreements (hereinafter, legal risk). Financial risks comprise market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risks), credit risk and liquidity risk. Risk management procedures are regulated by internal documents and regulatory acts of the Bank of Russia and supervised by various bodies that regulate the insurer's activities. An authorized employee monitors risks, as specified in local acts approved by the CEO. Management approves both the reinsurer's overall risk management policy and the policy for managing each of the essential types of risk. The reinsurer sets limits for transactions exposed to risk in accordance with the principles defined by the reinsurer's risk management policies and the reinsurer's investment strategy. Limit-setting proposals to be submitted to a designated committee are prepared by relevant departments that control risks. Risk-controlling departments operate independently of departments engaged in operations exposed to risks. Stress testing for all significant types of risks is performed by the reinsurer at least once a year. Stress testing results are considered and discussed by the reinsurer's management. The reinsurer's financial risk management strategy is based on compliance with the principles of safety, profitability, diversification and liquidity of invested funds. To manage various types of financial risks and to minimize them, the reinsurer uses the following procedures and tools. Review of risks, their dynamics over time and reasons underlying changes (hereinafter, monitoring). Monitoring precedes the use of other procedures that include scenario analysis, meetings with management companies, proposals to change the structure of the portfolio in order to mitigate risks and proposals to change investment declarations. Monitoring is performed on a regular basis. An authorized employee is responsible for monitoring, as specified in local acts approved by the CEO. |

Distribution of investment funds to reduce concentration risk through distribution to different types of assets whose incomes are not interconnected (hereinafter, diversification). Diversification can mitigate concentration risk without changing the overall profitability of assets. Concentration risk is mitigated by the inclusion into the portfolio of a wide range of financial instruments diversified by industries and counterparties that are not closely related, which helps to avoid the synchrony of cyclic fluctuations in their business activity. At the same time, overall portfolio profitability is achieved because possible low incomes from one financial instrument are compensated by higher incomes from other instruments. Investments are distributed both among individual types of assets and within these types. For deposits placed, this means diversification by counterparties, for corporate securities – by issuers, for short-term government securities – by security series. An authorized employee is responsible for controlling the diversification of the reinsurer's investment portfolio, as specified in local acts approved by the CEO. Scenario analysis or modeling are used to predict possible developments of the current situation. In the course of scenario analysis, the reinsurer's responses to changes in operating environment are developed. An authorized employee is responsible for analyzing scenarios and choosing the optimal one, as specified in local acts approved by the CEO.

The risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation (hereinafter, credit risk). Information is disclosed in accordance with IFRS 7. To mitigate credit risk, the reinsurer uses its credit risk policy, according to which the reinsurer's credit risks are evaluated and determined. Compliance with the policy is monitored, and information about all risks and violations is reported to the reinsurer's risk committee. Policies are regularly reviewed in terms of relevance and considering changes in risks. The reinsurer sets limits on its net risk exposures for each counterparty or a group of counterparties, geographical and industry segments (i.e., limits are set for investments and cash deposits and risks related to foreign currency trading instruments, and a minimum credit rating is also determined for the reinsurer's possible investments). To limit its credit risk, the reinsurer also uses master netting agreements for counterparties with which it has a significant number of transactions. Credit risk related to such amounts is mitigated when obligations are not met and such amounts are settled net. As at December 31, 2023, the reinsurer does not have such agreements. The reinsurer uses strict limits for amounts and terms of net open derivative positions. Amounts exposed to credit risk are limited to the fair value of "in the money" financial assets, against which the reinsurer obtains collateral from counterparties or requires to provide guarantee deposits. The reinsurer has the right to sell or repledge the collateral that is subject to recovery if the agreement is terminated or its fair value reduces. Reinsurance contracts are concluded with counterparties with a good credit rating. To avoid risk concentrations, guidance is in place on limits for counterparties, which are annually set by the Board of Directors and reviewed on a regular basis. At each reporting date, management analyzes reinsurers' solvency and makes changes to the strategy of concluding reinsurance contracts by determining the amount of impairment allowances. The reinsurer sets maximum amounts and limits for counterparties based on their long-term credit ratings. Credit risk related to receivables due to failure to pay premiums or contributions persists during the grace period specified in the policy or the document on property management by proxy until payments under the policy are made or the policy is terminated. Fees and commissions paid to intermediaries are offset against receivables therefrom in order to mitigate the risk of doubtful debts. The reinsurer's maximum credit risk exposures for components of the balance sheet as at December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023 are represented by the carrying amounts of the relevant assets.

| Description of the nature and amounts of contingent liabilities that do not meet the criteria for recognition in the balance sheet | 1        | The current Russian tax legislation is vaguely drafted and allows for varying interpretations and selective and inconsistent application by regulatory authorities. It is also subject to changes that can occur frequently, often at short notice, and may apply retrospectively. In particular, numerous and substantial changes were introduced to the Russian tax legislation in 2022-2024 in response to the ongoing geopolitical situation. Some of the changes were designed to ease the effects of economic sanctions imposed on Russian taxpayers. Other changes sought to expand measures aimed at deterring abusive practices violating the tax legislation. In addition, certain provisions of a number of international tax treaties were suspended. The procedure for applying the amended provisions may raise questions, and the application practices have not been well established. Therefore, interpretation by the Company management of the legislation as applied to the transactions and activities of the Company may be challenged by the relevant regional or federal authorities. Recent trends in the application and interpretation of certain provisions of the Russian tax legislation indicate that the tax authorities may take a more assertive position in their interpretation. The tax authorities may thus challenge transactions and approaches to applying the Russian tax legislation that they have not challenged before. As a result, additional taxes, penalties and interest may be assessed to taxpayers. Currently, it is not possible to determine the amounts of potential claims that have not been filed or assess the probability of a negative outcome. As a general rule, field tax audits, other than those focusing on transfer pricing, may cover three calendar years immediately preceding the year in which the decision to conduct a tax audit is made. Under certain circumstances, earlier tax periods may also be reviewed. Russian transfer pricing legislation allows the tax authorities to apply transfer pricing adjustments and assess additional income tax and value added tax liabilities in respect of 'controlled' transactions if the price used in a transaction differs from the arm's length price. The list of 'controlled' transactions includes transactions between related parties (Russian and foreign), as well as certain types of transactions between unrelated parties that are treated as controlled transactions. The Company income (expenses) from 'controlled' transactions in the reporting period were determined based on actual prices in the transactions. Although a substantial portion of domestic transactions in Russia are not subject to transfer pricing control under the Russian tax legislation, territorial tax authorities may review prices used in such transactions between related parties, e.g., for compliance with provisions dealing with tax abuses. As at 31 December 2024, management believes that its interpretation of the relevant legislation is appropriate and that it is probable that the Company tax, currency and customs positions will be sustained. |            |
